GYPSIES' GOLDEN $8000 HOARD IS GONE; 3 MEN HELD

Servians Relax Vigilance on O'Fallon Street Home, Where Tribe's Wealth Was Kept in Bags and Sections of Fire Hose and Robbers Plunder Place.

LAMENT WHILE THEY REPORT TO POLICE

Bartender and Companion Whom Policeman Hears Discussing a Division of Money Arrested and Boy, Former Roomer, Hunted.

Thirty Servian gypsy men, resplendent with gold earrings, surged about the captain's office in the Carr Street Police Station Wednesday, imploring Capt. Schoppe to recover the stolen hoard of their tribe, amounting to about $8000 in American, French, Spanish, English and Mexican coin. The money, with $200 worth of jewelry, was taken Tuesday night from its hiding place beneath the bed of Melish Vildo, chief of the tribe, in his room at 1525 O'Fallon street.

Policemen and detectives following the trail of the golden hoard, and of a taxi cab's after-midnight journey to a Theodosia avenue house, arrested William Powers, a bartender; Ben Shaw, a stack painter and stevedore; and Cleveland Heinrichs of 1510 Biddle street, while telegrams were being sent requesting the arrest of a fourth suspect.

Seizure of Many Years.
 The police first learned of the robbery when the Gypsy chief and his sons, Nicholas, George and Vando Vildo, burst into the station at 1:30 a. m., and uttered the most bohemian lamentations. It took the policemen some time to quiet the men sufficiently to get the story of the loss of the tribal hoard—money saved through many years of horse trading and fortune telling, and never entrusted to a bank. The tribe headed by Vildo has spent the winter in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and O'Fallon streets.

The money was kept in two canvas bags and a pile of fire hose, riveted at both ends, all inclosed in a large leather pouch, which lay under Melish Vildo's bed and was guarded in his absence by his wife.

This vigilance was relaxed Tuesday night, when the Vildos said it was known to a 16-year-old youth who had been living in the house until a few days ago, and who had since been sleeping in a shed, because the family had no room for him in the house.

A visit to the premises showed that the shed was deserted. Inquiry at Union Station showed that a youth of the same appearance as the Vildo's late lodger, had left for Cincinnati on the B. & O. Southwestern train at 1:45 a. m. Messages were sent to points along the line, asking for his arrest.

At 5 a. m. Patrolman Wienecke ordered two men disputing angrily as they entered a saloon in the neighborhood of the Vildo home. One was William Powers, the bartender, just going on duty; the other was Ben Shaw. The policeman heard one say to the other, "All you going to give me but $100?"

Foreign Coins Are Found.
 He arrested the two, and at the station Shaw was found to have in his pocket gold and silver coins which the police decided were Spanish, French and Mexican, and whose value they figured as $74.85, beside $250 in United States gold coins.

Powers had no foreign money, but had $212 in United States currency and had four certificates of deposit made out in his own name, aggregating $252.25.

A taxi cab, in which the two had been riding, was near the scene of the arrest, and the chauffeur said he had just returned with them from a house on Theodosia avenue, near Goodfellow avenue, to which he had taken them, after picking them up in front of the American Hotel at 1:30 a. m.

Third Suspect Is Held.
 Cleveland Heinrichs of 1510 Biddle street was later arrested in Carpenter place, on the suspicion that he had been in the taxi cab with the two men. Detectives were sent to the Theodosia avenue house, and learned there that a man had called between 4 and 5 a. m., and had seen a young woman living there. A $40 gold piece was found in a tea cup in the kitchen, and the detectives were told it had been left by a man. The police questioned the girl, but maintained secrecy as to what was learned from her.

Twelve inches of snow had fallen in Nebraska before noon, and the fall in other sections was equally heavy.

Official forecast for St. Louis and vicinity: Snow tonight or Thursday, with a high north wind is blowing about 25 degrees; strong easterly winds.

Stage of the river: 19.4 feet; a rise of .3 of a foot.

STONE FACES RUIN RAZORS
 So Price of Concrete Workers' Shaves Is Advanced.

HAMMOND, Ind., March 20.—Men with concrete faces are going to pay more for their shaves in this town, or shave themselves, say the barbers. Concrete faces? It is thus explained:

Men working in the concrete plant here get their beards full of fine cement dust. When they perspire, and then go into the open air, a layer of concrete forms on their skin which is not calculated to promote the efficiency of a delicate-edged razor.

50,000 WOMEN TO MARCH
 Suffragists Plan Demonstration for Chicago Convention.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Fifty thousand women will march in a parade to the Republican national convention in the Coliseum here next June and ask the party to endorse the equal suffrage cause if plans formulated here are carried into execution.

Dr. Anna Blount, one of the leaders in the cause, said that every State in the Union would be represented by women's clubs.

BABOON STOPS TRAFFIC
 Seattle City Department Vainly Try to Catch It.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 20.—A baboon held up traffic on Seattle's principal street for half an hour. The Police and Fire departments were called, but the baboon crawled out of a window, got under a cornice and clung on.

Finally it went 12 feet hand over hand along the front of the building, jumped 20 feet to a lower building, and is still at large.

College Head Walks 30 Miles in Night.
 ELIZABETH, N. J., March 20.—Dr. John H. Finley, president of the College of the City of New York, has stepped into the limelight as a long distance pedestrian. Friends told today that Dr. Finley started out for a little walk Sunday night and ended a few hours later with 30 miles of ground to his credit.

EXPRESSMAN ON M. & O. TELLS HOW HE WAS HELD UP

Messenger Snoddy Forced From Car Under Guard While Safe Was Blown and Robbed.

$50,000 LOSS IS REPORTED

Women on Way to Mothers' Congress Here Say They Hid Valuables in Their Hair.

Express Messenger William Snoddy and several passengers, including women on their way to St. Louis to attend the Mothers' Congress, told in St. Louis Wednesday the story of how their train, Mobile and Ohio No. 4, was held up and robbed near Corinth, Miss., Tuesday night. None of them could confirm the rumor that the bandits got $50,000 from a safe in Snoddy's car. The safe was wrecked by an explosive.

Snoddy appeared reluctant to discuss the robbery. He said events happened so quickly that he scarcely knew what was going on.

Crash at Car Door.
 "I had no idea the train was being robbed when it stopped," he said. "I was busy about my work and supposed some obstruction or train order had stopped it. The first I knew anything was wrong was when I heard something crash against the door of my car. Even then it was several minutes before I could understand somebody was trying to break in."

"Then the door gave way and the first thing I knew a man had jumped in. He threw a revolver up and ordered me to put up my hands. He ordered me to keep still and then another man came in."

"I was ordered then to leave the car. Outside one man guarded me. Another was busy in the car for several minutes. Then he, too, came out. A minute later came the explosion, as the safe was forced open."

"I don't know how much money was in the car. I have been instructed by the company not to discuss the matter until I get further permission, so this is all I can say."

Conductor O'Hare, in charge of the train, left it at Cairo, Ill. Mrs. G. S. Davis, Miss Addie Davis and Mrs. Mary Emily Connell of Columbus, Miss., who are delegates to the women's convention, said that O'Hare gave the passengers the first news of the bandits.

Conductor Warns Passengers.
 "He came through the car shouting it was being held up," Mrs. Davis said. "and advised the twenty-five or thirty passengers to hide their valuables. At first we thought he was joking, until some of the men stuck their heads out of the windows and saw the engineer and fireman with their hands up and men guarding them with revolvers. Then we began hiding our valuables in our shoes and hair. We were surprised when the train moved on again and the bandits hadn't visited us."

J. J. Howell of Avon, Ill., said women paid jewelry in their stockings and hid them in their hair, while the men slipped their purses under seats and into every available niche.

The safe in the express car was wrecked beyond repair, the whole front being torn away. Officials believe dynamite was used for the blast. Windows in the car were shattered and express packages broken open by the force of the explosion.

Nobody knew when the bandits boarded the train. Two of them crawled over the tender, and, with revolvers, compelled the engineer and fireman to stop at a point seven miles south of Corinth. After they had looted the safe, they ran into the dense underbrush of the Tumbler River bottom. Bloodhounds were put upon their trail Wednesday.

JURY HEARS OF LEWIS TROUBLE WITH POSTOFFICE

Despite District Attorney's Objections Publisher's Lawyer Gets It on Record.

MAGAZINES HELD UP

Witness Says 3 Carloads Were Detained After Postage Had Been Paid.

Attorneys for E. G. Lewis on trial in the United States District Court on a charge of using the mails to defraud in the sale of securities of his University City corporations cross-examined Francis V. Putnam, former treasurer of the companies, at length Wednesday as to Lewis' troubles with the postoffice department in 1905 and 1907.

Putnam testified that many persons who subscribed for the notes and stock of the corporations wrote letters to Lewis expressing sympathy for him in the fight with the postoffice department. District Attorney Houts repeated his objections to going into the fraud orders issued against Lewis and the People's United States Bank in 1907 and the withdrawal of the second class mailing privileges from the Lewis publications in 1907, declaring that those matters were not issues in this case, as the alleged offenses upon which Lewis is now being tried occurred in 1908, 1909 and 1910.

Stockholders Told of Charges.
 Former Judge Barclay succeeded in getting into the record the statement of Putnam that he, Lewis and F. J. Cahoon, who was a director of the Lewis corporations, were indicted in 1905 and again in 1907, and that postoffice inspectors sent circulars announcing these facts to 18,000 stockholders in the Lewis corporations.

He testified also regarding the holding up of three car loads of Lewis' magazines by the postoffice department after the postage had been paid. That also occurred in 1907, he said. He testified also to an investigation of the subscription records of the Lewis Publishing Co., made by the Pettit Commission, at the request of Lewis in 1907.

Putnam was asked if the building of a subway from University City to the business district of St. Louis was not a material part of the plans of Lewis for the development of his University City properties, and if the purchase of the St. Louis Star was not made for furthering the subway scheme.

Putnam said he understood that Lewis purchased the Star for the purpose of using it to get a franchise for a subway. District Attorney Houts, who is prosecuting the Government's case against Lewis, asked Putnam whether Lewis had ever applied to the city of St. Louis for a subway franchise. Putnam said he did not know that any application had ever been made for a franchise.

Notes Not Paid.
 Relative to the notes of the Lewis Publishing Co. in 1910, Putnam testified that about $50,000 of them had been actually paid in money or transferred into other holdings of the Lewis corporations. Something over $100,000 worth of the notes were never paid, he said.

When he severed his connection with the Lewis Publishing Co. in 1910, Putnam said he had drawn a number of checks to pay off notes that had been sent in for payment. There was no money in the bank to pay the checks, he said, and they were held up, but the notes were sent to the St. Louis County Land Title Co. for cancellation. He said it was expected that the money to pay the checks would come in when they were written.

The value of the land mortgaged to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. for $400,000 was $150,000 in excess of the mortgage, Putnam testified. The fact that the value exceeded the mortgage by so great a sum, he said, made the income or unsecured notes sold to investors by Lewis on order for first mortgage notes a good investment.

Had 3000 Investors.
 About 3000 persons invested in the per cent notes of the Lewis Publishing Co., Putnam said, and the same number bought the 6 per cent notes of the University Heights Realty and Development Co.

Putnam was put on the stand Monday afternoon by District Attorney Houts, and was on the stand the entire day Tuesday.

In his cross-examination Putnam testified that Edward Gruener, a real estate expert of the Mercantile Trust Co., made an appraisal of section 4 of University City and fixed the valuation at $354,000.

On redirect examination District Attorney Houts brought out the fact from Putnam that Lewis placed mortgages to the amount of $638,000 on this place of land, and that a third mortgage for $238,000 was the only security behind certain of the notes issued to investors on their subscriptions for first mortgage notes.

At the time the appraisal was made, Putnam said, there was a first mortgage for $80,000 on the tract, and a second mortgage for $210,000. Lewis then put the third mortgage on the property.

"As a real estate expert, Mr. Putnam,"

Mrs. E. R. Thomas Sues for Divorce Names an Actress in Her Petition Turfman and Showgirl Both Abroad

"Divers Others" Are Also Mentioned in Complaint of Former Kentucky Beauty.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Naming a show girl and dancer as one of the co-respondents, Mrs. Edward R. Thomas, who was the beautiful Linda Lee of Kentucky, has filed papers in a suit for divorce from her spectacular husband, whom the calcium light has followed tirelessly through his various ventures as turfman, banker, reckless automobilist and theatrical "angel."

The lady of the footlights is Theodora Gerard, former chum of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, to whom, as well as other intimates, she is known as "Teddy." Her husband is Joseph Raymond. Many persons have frequently remarked her facial resemblance to the tragedienne of the Thaw trials.

Thomas is said to be abroad. He went there two years ago, and it is believed he is now staying at Nice, France. Because of this, Justice Gavegan empowered counsel for Mrs. Thomas to serve him by publication. Miss Gerard is also on foreign soil.

La Belle Theo, as Miss Gerard was called when she was demonstrating her theory of the Vampire Dance in Paris, is not the only young woman for whom Mrs. Thomas charges her husband has an undue regard, but "divers others" as far as the plaintiff goes in identifying them.

EXECUTION EXPECTED FOR KNOX PLOTTERS
 Prominent Liberals Likely to Be Doomed as Result of Plan to Kill Secretary of State.

NEW ORLEANS, March 20.—As the result of the alleged discovery by the Government of Nicaragua of a plot to assassinate Secretary Knox during his recent visit there, it is probable a number of prominent "liberals" will be put to death, according to reports received here today from Bluefields.

Thirteen dynamite bombs placed beneath the roadbed over which Secretary Knox's special train traveled, and connected with an electric battery, were discovered by Government agents and will be used as evidence against the conspirators.

On the day of Knox's arrival at Managua, a bomb was exploded under the Chilmajale bridge between Leon and La Ceiba, destroying a small portion of the track but doing little damage.

$100,000 Morgan Gift to College.
 NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 20.—An announcement was made here today of a gift of $100,000 by J. Pierpont Morgan to the Peabody College for teachers. The trustees of the George Peabody fund agreed to give an additional $50,000 to the Southern College, provided the college raised $1,000,000, and Morgan's contribution is to be a part of the million.

RICH CLUBWOMAN, CAUGHT SMUGGLING JEWELS; HANGS SELF

Authoress, Vassar Alumna, Ties Rope to Radiator, Jumps Out of Eighth Floor of New York Hotel.

SURRENDERED $20,000 IN GEMS AFTER HER ARREST

Mrs. Flanche Carson, Widowed When a California Bride, Confessed She Undervalued and Hid Property, Fearing She Would Have to Pay "Excessive" Duties.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Mrs. Blanche Carson of California, a club woman of wealth and an author, killed herself early today by tying a rope around her neck after attaching it to a radiator in her room and leaping from the eighth story of the Hotel Brozelle. The body was seen soon after daylight by pedestrians.

Mrs. Carson was under bond to answer charges of undervaluing jewels she had brought into the country Monday when she arrived from India on the steamer George Washington. She had confessed and had acknowledged in addition that she had secreted two valuable diamonds under the lining of her hat. She bought the jewels at the Durbar.

Mrs. Carson was an alumna of Vassar College and active in the work of the Vassar Students' Aid Society in San Francisco. She was the author of several books.

Her husband, Dr. Edwin Carson, died a few weeks after their marriage a number of years ago. Since then Mrs. Carson had spent much of her time at Carmel-by-the-Sea, a colony of writers and artists near San Francisco.

Well Supplied With Funds.
 Mrs. Carson was well supplied with funds, and it seems certain that she resorted to her actions in endeavoring to evade the customs laws, and the humiliation of having to appear in court, caused the woman to end her life.

Two notes were found in the room, one of which was addressed to her attorney, Harrison, Osborn, and the other to Paul R. Maybury, 219 West Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles.

The letter to Osborn follows: "4 a. m.—My Dear Mr. Osborn—My brother's address is Paul R. Maybury, 219 West Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles, Cal. I can never thank you enough for all you have done for me. Dispose of the remains here as quickly as possible. Do not send them home. "B. CARSON."

Maybury is the manager of a trust company in Los Angeles.

The woman, who says her home was at 225 Gough street, San Francisco, arrived Monday morning on the steamer George Washington. She confessed to the custom house authorities yesterday that she had attempted to smuggle into the country a pair of diamond ear rings worth several thousand dollars.

In the San Francisco city directory there is no such name as Blanche Carson, and the address she gave is fictitious.

When she arrived Monday she declared some loose pearls at a valuation of $200. They seemed undervalued, so the inspectors confiscated them and ordered her to appear before Surveyor Henry. She called at the Surveyor's office yesterday afternoon and seemed panic-stricken. She said:

"I will confess that those unstrung pearls are not the only gems I have. I also have a pair of diamond earrings which I concealed in the lining of my hat. I was told that the duties collected here were excessive. I thought that I ought not to pay excessive duties. I regret what I have done. I am willing to tell all and to give up everything I have purchased for valuation. I am willing to pay that duty."

Gives Up $20,000 Jewels.
 Surveyor Henry informed the woman he would have to order her arrest. She fled officials to her apartments, where she gave up the $20,000 worth of jewels which she had bought in India.

Released on $2000 bail for further examination Friday, Mrs. Carson went up town, presumably to her hotel.

She registered at the hotel as Mrs. Edwin Carson of Paris. It was understood her home was in San Francisco, but the hotel manager said this morning he thought Mrs. Carson resided in Los Angeles. She was 30 years old and was making a trip around the world alone.

Mrs. Carson evidently had sat up all night. She had fastened one end of a rope to a radiator, slipped the noose around her neck and dropped out of the window. The body was discovered at 6:30.

August and bought the jewels in India while attending the Durbar.

Mrs. Carson Had Gone to the Durbar.
 SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—Since the death of her husband several years ago, Mrs. Carson had lived with her sisters, the Misses Maybury, in apartments in a fashionable neighborhood here. After attending the Durbar, she went to Europe and was supposed to have left Paris March 12 on the steamer Olympic. One of Mrs. Carson's sisters said today:

"When Mrs. Carson left here for India she had some beautiful diamond and pearl rings. What their value was I do not know."

"We heard from her at Paris and she told us that she would sail on the Olympic March 12. If she came to America on the George Washington she must have changed her plans."

Mrs. Carson's Family in California.
 SAN JOSE, Cal., March 20.—Mrs. Blanche Carson was a daughter of the late Hiram Maybury, for years one of the most prominent residents of this city.

The family is one of great wealth and after their mansion here was washed by the earthquake of 1906, other members of the family moved to Los Angeles.

$50,258,964 GAINED BY MISSOURI IN YEAR

$22,316,710 Gain in Assessed Real and Personal Property in St. Louis.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 20.—The assessed valuation of the real estate and personal property of Missouri for the year's taxes as fixed by the various assessors of the State, is $1,977,651,263. These figures are from returns to the State Board of Equalization.

There is an increase over the previous year's assessment of $50,258,964. Of this increase $16,378,390 falls upon Kansas City and Jackson County and $22,316,710 on St. Louis. Lacking about $2,000,000, St. Louis bears half the increase and Kansas City and Jackson County almost one-fourth.

The center of heavy valuations are these: Buchanan County, $41,524,770; Jackson County, $118,614,480; St. Louis County, $1,099,641; City of St. Louis, $900,704,000.

The public service corporations are yet to be assessed. When this is done the total assessed valuation of the State for the present year's taxes will be close to $2,752,000,000, or an increase over last year of about $60,000,000.

FREE BRIDGE IS PUT ON THE RIVER MAP

The free bridge was put on the river map Tuesday by the City Council when a bill was passed authorizing the installation of a system of navigation lights on the partly completed structure.

No lights are necessary to indicate the position of the approach. That can be attended to when the House of Delegates committee dealing with the bill is approached—and means.

LA FOLLETTE LEADS ROOSEVELT 5000 IN NORTH DAKOTA

Wisconsin Senator Expected to Carry the State Primaries by at Least 13,500.

COLONEL'S AIDS HOPEFUL

Charge Democrats Worked Against Them, but Will Not Concede They Are Defeated.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., March 20.—Col. Roosevelt authorized the statement this morning that he had expected the result in North Dakota and that for two weeks the Roosevelt forces had been making no active efforts there.

FARGO, N. D., March 20.—Partial returns show Senator La Follette 21,657 and Roosevelt 15,711. This ratio, maintained by the reports from other precincts, will bring La Follette's majority over Roosevelt up to approximately 5,946.

At an early hour this morning 650 precincts out of 1,500 gave La Follette 21,657 and Roosevelt 15,711. This ratio, maintained by the reports from other precincts, will bring La Follette's majority over Roosevelt up to approximately 5,946.

La Follette's strength was greater in the eastern part of the state, although Roosevelt did not develop so much strength in the west as had been anticipated. Roosevelt carried but one of the eastern tier of counties.

Thomas Marshall, the La Follette candidate for National Commissioner, has a majority which it is believed will equal that of La Follette. The La Follette presidential electors all have been elected with majorities ranging about the same as the head of the ticket.

The vote was cast down materially in the western part of the state on account of a storm.

John S. Bass, manager of the Roosevelt campaign, issued the following statement:

"Our reports indicate that practically all the Democrats have voted for La Follette and this has run up the early returns for him in the eastern and valley section of the state where La Follette is running ahead about two to one. Our later returns from the western slope indicate that country is generally for Roosevelt by two to one. I do not concede La Follette success and predict Roosevelt will win by a very close vote. If the Democrats had stayed out of the Republican primary there is no question but Roosevelt would have won."

Ned—Harry me. I dreamed you got the diamond ring on credit of Lottis. Call me up.

Jurors Hear of E. G. Lewis' Trouble With Postoffice

do you think a third mortgage as good security?" asked Houts.

"Well, not exactly," answered the witness.

"And in September, 1908, with the report of Gruener before you and the officers of the company, that this section of land was worth $250,000, it was transferred to the University Heights Realty and Development Co. for $422,000, was it not?"

"It was."

"How land was valued."

In answer to a question from Houts, Putnam said the value of the equity in sections 1, 2 and 3 of University City in the spring of 1910 was worth $1,500,000, according to Lewis' representations. When questioned by the judge, he said, the land was valued by Lewis at about $350 a foot and that 10,000 feet remained unsold.

"What would you say the land was worth?" inquired the judge.

"About $70 a foot," the witness replied.

"Then if there were 10,000 feet unsold, the total value would be $700,000, and if we deduct the $300,000 mortgage from this we have a value of $400,000 for the equity, as against $1,500,000, do we not?" asked the judge.

The witness replied that the computation was correct.

"E. G. Lewis advertised that all of the referred stock of the University Heights Realty and Development Co. would be retired and that the common stock would then own a vast fortune in real estate, according to Putnam's testimony Tuesday afternoon."

After this advertisement had been printed, Lewis, instead of retiring the $2,000 worth of preferred stock then outstanding, issued $15,000 worth of additional preferred stock and sold it to the public, Putnam testified, Tuesday.

Stock as a Bonus.

The common stock of the company was given as a bonus to purchasers of the 6 per cent notes of the development company, according to Putnam.

The Lewis advertisements represented that the owners of this stock would share in immense profits on the real estate owned by the company.

The common stock never paid any dividends, Putnam testified, and the preferred stock paid none after the extra issue of $100,000.

When the 6 per cent notes fell due Lewis sought to have them transferred into other securities of his corporations, Putnam testified.

On cross-examination Putnam was asked by Lewis' attorney whether the projected subway would have increased the value of University City real estate. He said in his opinion it would have doubled the value.

John—Am I not? I proposed. The diamond ring on credit of Lottis, on credit, is a beauty.

ST. LOUIS WOMEN PROMINENT IN AFFAIRS OF MOTHERS' CONGRESS

LICHLITER HERESY CHARGE NOT TO GO BEFORE CHURCH

Pastor Assured Gould's Complaint Is Not Ground for Conference Action.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 20.—It is hardly probable that charges of heresy will be filed against the Rev. Dr. H. H. Lichliter, pastor of the Maple Avenue Methodist Church in St. Louis, at the Methodist conference which began this morning in the Grand Avenue Temple. Leading members of the conference said as much yesterday and Dr. Lichliter said he had assurances that there was no ground for conference action.

Recently Fred J. Gould of St. Louis, heard Dr. Lichliter preach. He objected to some of the minister's views and wrote a letter to Bishop William Quayle in which he said that Dr. Lichliter's remarks smacked strongly of heresy.

Dr. Lichliter only smiled at Gould's charges when seen. He delivered a lecture at the Grand Avenue Temple last night.

"I do not anticipate any conference action on Mr. Gould's charges," said the minister. "Obviously there is a difference between an informal personal complaint and formal charge of heresy. Mr. Gould is not a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and his letter to Bishop Quayle, based upon one paragraph in the one address he heard me give, will hardly have any weight with the conference."

"His letter is certainly a violation of good taste. There are enough men in the Methodist Episcopal Church to vindicate its doctrine and defend its standards when necessary without the intervention of a member of another denomination."

"I have no argument as to the original matter. I was quoted correctly. No defense is necessary. The distinction between the modernist and the traditionalist in religion is not one of doctrine, but attitude of mind."

FOREST PARK DRIVES WILL BE REBUILT

New Roads Are to Be Constructed From Memorial to Art Museum.

Park Commissioner Davis is having plans prepared for the reconstruction of the driveways and pavements at the De Baliviere entrance to Forest Park utilizing the main drive through the Jefferson Memorial. This structure will be completed in a short time and will make necessary a readjustment of the contour of the adjoining section of the park.

The present roadways and sidewalks will be torn up and new roads will be constructed leading from the memorial to the Art Museum. Several thousand dollars will be spent in beautifying the grounds.

This is a part of a general plan of reconstructing and repairing the drives in Forest Park this spring. The plans for improving the Union and Lindell boulevards entrances to the park await a decision of the grade-crossing problem between the city and the receivers of the Wabash Railroad.

Spring-Cleaning

The Human System Needs It.

Mrs. M. Morgan, 411 4th Ave., E., Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I take from one to two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the spring to purify the blood just as regularly as I do my house-cleaning, and go around light-footed and light-hearted. I believe it is the best blood purifier known."

Hood's Sarsaparilla so combines the curative principles of roots, barks and herbs as to raise them to their highest efficiency; hence its great record. Get it today in usual liquid form or in pleasant tablet form.

MOTHERS HERE FOR CONVENTION, MEET AT THE CITY HALL

National Board of Managers Greeted by Acting Mayor in Kreismann's Absence.

RECEPTION TO DELEGATES

Object of Organization Is to Teach Young Parents About Children's Care.

Members of the National Board of Managers of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' Association met at the audience room of Mayor Kreismann Wednesday in executive session and took preliminary action on matters that are to come before the meetings of the congress that are to be held all week.

In the absence of Mayor Kreismann, Acting Mayor Gundlach bade the women welcome and expressed his pleasure that the board of managers had decided to hold its meetings at the city hall.

Mrs. Frederick Schoff of Philadelphia, the president, thanked the Acting Mayor on behalf of the organization.

To Receive Delegates. All arrangements were made for a reception to delegates by the officers at the Planters Hotel Wednesday. The opening session of the Child Welfare Conference will be held at 8 o'clock. Acting Mayor Gundlach will deliver the formal address of welcome. The other speakers will be Thomas J. Cannon, Supt. Ben Blewett of the St. Louis Public Schools; Mrs. Frank De Garmon, chairman of the local arrangements committee; Mrs. Schoff and Dr. M. V. O'Shea of Wisconsin University.

There will be a business session Thursday morning and in the afternoon the subject will be "The Home's Responsibility in Child Welfare Legislation."

The object of the congress, Mrs. Schoff says, is to arouse the people to the need of educating young mothers in the care of babies. It is intended to effect such a wide-spread organization that mothers everywhere will be able readily to obtain information about the care and rearing of their infants and to be believed that a great lessening of infant mortality will be effected.

JOHN CONNORS, PERJURER, PAROLED IN LAHV'S CARE

Man Implicated in Shooting of Policeman Freed After a Year.

JONES PLEADED FOR HIM

Upon Circuit Attorney's and Judge Shield's Recommendation the Prisoner Was Freed.

At Sullivan's trial Connors swore that of a two years' sentence for perjury, John (Heavy) Connors of St. Louis has been paroled by Gov. Hadley. Under the terms of the parole Connors will be under the guardianship of Delegate John Lahiv, who will be responsible for his conduct.

Connors entered the penitentiary Feb. 17, 1911, following his conviction in the Criminal Court in connection with the shooting of Patrolman John Hutton by Cornelius Sullivan at the West End Physical Culture Club, Twenty-second street and Washington avenue, Jan. 17, 1908.

Swore He Was Intoxicated. At Sullivan's trial Connors swore that he was at the club but was so intoxicated that he knew nothing of the shooting.

George Brazier, 8 years old, who sang at the club, testified that Connors was one of the leaders of the attack on Patrolman Hutton. On this testimony Connors was convicted of perjury.

Sullivan, who shot Hutton, was paroled about six months ago on the representation that he was dying of consumption.

Connors was implicated with Sullivan in an attack on Miss Annette McDonald, a department store model, Nov. 21, 1906. Miss McDonald was forcibly taken from an Olive street restaurant by two men, who put her in a carriage and drove her to the North End Democratic Club, 348 North Broadway, where they kept her a prisoner all night.

Sentenced to Five Years. When the case came up for trial Miss McDonald did not appear and the charge against Connors was dropped. To escape prosecution on the charge of abducting Miss McDonald, Sullivan, already convicted of shooting Hutton, pleaded guilty to an election fraud charge and was sentenced to five years.

Connors was arrested several times but was never convicted except on the perjury charge. He was reputed to be a member of the Bottoms Gang.

A dispatch from Jefferson City Wednesday told that Connors was paroled on the recommendation of Circuit Attorney Jones and an indorsement from Judge Shields.

The Circuit Attorney stated that while it was true that Connors was guilty of perjury yet the evidence showed that he was drunk when the crime was committed and probably had no clear ideas in the premises.

Pleaded for Him. He also stated "that no good purpose can now be served by forcing this young man to serve full time." He added that Connors is about 30 years old, lived all his life in St. Louis and was never in any previous trouble.

Judge Shields indorsed the Circuit Attorney's letter with a notation that he would recommend the parole, conditioned that Connors was to be paroled to some responsible person.

Circuit Attorney Jones Wednesday said that he wrote a letter to Judge Shields saying that he would not oppose a recommendation for a parole for Connors. This was in response to a letter written to Jones by Judge Shields after Connors' friends had asked for clemency.

Jones wrote to the judge that Connors was intoxicated the night of the Hutton shooting, and that he had never been in serious trouble before. In making this statement, Jones said, he did not consider the charges made by Miss McDonald, as investigation at the time convinced him that her story of abduction and mistreatment was untrue.

THIS SPRING

If You Take Vinol Now You Will Be Strong All Summer.

"I can get along pretty well in the spring," said a feeble looking woman the other day, "but the summer always pulls me down so much."

The trouble with her was that she did not know that she ought to prepare in spring to stand the summer—then she would get along all right.

Our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is the best spring medicine because it builds you up—makes you eat more and digest better—makes your blood rich and pure—puts healthy color in your cheeks.

Mr. P. O. Barker of Bowen's Mill, Ga., writes: "When I was badly run down last spring, I took Vinol in an effort to regain my health and strength, and it did not disappoint me. It made me feel as well as ever."

So, to all weak, pale, bloodless, run-down people we say, "Take Vinol now, this spring, and be strong all summer."

We guarantee Vinol to satisfy you and refund your money if it does not. Chester Kent & Co., Chemists. For sale by Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo.

HAS PLAN FOR RIGID LID CLUB LICENSING AND REGULATION

Phillips Believes His Bill Would Stop Promiscuous Sale of Intoxicants.

$2000 BOND IS PROVIDED

Taxpayers' Consent Necessary Before Organization Could Obtain a Charter.

Alroy S. Phillips, State senator from St. Louis, has a plan for lifting the "lid" clubs out of St. Louis. He has prepared a bill to introduce at the next session of the Legislature for the licensing and strict regulation of clubs which he thinks will meet the approval of both the "lid" and the "anti-lid" elements. Phillips thinks the St. Louis lid is here to stay. He is confident the country members of the Legislature will not vote for a repeal of the law and is not convinced that a majority of the saloonkeepers, even, want to reopen on Sunday. The bill he has prepared is intended to meet the requirements of those who want to drink on Sunday and at the same time end the promiscuous sale of intoxicants at unlicensed lid clubs. The bill provides that no club or society shall dispense to unregistered members intoxicants in quantities less than three gallons nor to registered members without taking out a club license. Members must be registered by an officer of the organization with the Excise Commissioner. No one can be registered who is not 21 years old.

Bond of $2000 Required. Before a club can obtain a license it must have the consent of a majority of the taxpayers of the block. Provision is made for the filing of remonstrances and the hearing of testimony. Licenses are to be issued for six months. A bond of $2000 is required to insure compliance with the conditions and orderly conduct of the club.

Any two or more reputable citizens may at any time bring suit in the Circuit Court for the forfeiture of the bond on the ground of violation of the conditions and if it is found that the conditions have been violated the Court will forfeit the bond and assess a fine of not less than $500.

The license tax is to be from $100 to $150 for State purposes and a like amount for county purposes. The club quarters must not be connected in any way with a dramshop or an immoral resort. No license shall be issued to any club which has been organized to evade the dramshop laws of the State, and there are many other rigid conditions. On or before the fifteenth of each month each holder of a club license shall file with the Excise Commissioner a sworn statement of its financial condition and of all its transactions.

Fine for Selling to Minor. Any person who sells intoxicants to a minor, under a club license, will have to pay $50 to the parent or guardian of the minor and may be fined from $50 to $200 in addition. For violation of any of the provisions of the bill a fine of from $50 to $200 or a jail sentence of from one to six months or both may be inflicted. Phillips has sent copies of the bill to all persons on both sides of the question, with a request that they give their opinion and suggestions for changes in it.

Clothing to Be Sold on New Credit Plan.

A new plan of selling clothing on credit has been adopted by the Hoyle & Rarick Clothing Co., 810 N. Broadway. The former custom of requiring a payment at time of purchase has been abolished and a customer may now buy a complete outfit of clothing without making a deposit. In putting this new plan into effect, the H. & R. Co. has not increased its prices, and the payment may be made weekly or monthly as desired.

The H. & R. Co. offers a wide range of merchandise on payments of $1 a week, and one may buy a complete outfit, including shoes, suit and hat, for $15, or may go as far beyond that figure as his circumstances permit. The H. & R. Co. handles men's, women's and children's clothing and its showing of spring styles is unusually extensive this season. The Company expects to double its number of patrons as a consequence of the new system.

HADLEY OBJECTS TO HIS NAME ON TICKET

Tells Nebraska Secretary of State He Is Not Running for Vice-President.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 20.—Gov. Hadley today wired a protest to Secretary of State Addison Waite of Nebraska against the placing of his name as a Republican candidate for Vice-President upon the primary ballot of that State.

In connection with this protest the Governor reiterated what he has said repeatedly, to the effect that he is not, and will not be, a candidate for Vice-President under any circumstances. He said it had been his intention for a long time, and is his intention now, to return to the practice of law at the expiration of his term of office. The Governor's telegram to Secretary Waite follows: "My attention has been called to a newspaper dispatch from Lincoln to the effect that the necessary petition has been filed in your office to place my name upon the primary election ballot as a candidate for Vice-President. This petition was prepared and filed without my knowledge or consent, and as I am not and will not be a candidate for this office, I respectfully request that this

MAN AND THE SOIL.

Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates. He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of my Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalizing power. It gives strength to the stomach and purify to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effects on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when overworked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

Mrs. LOTTIE KNISLEY of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony to the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures,' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could eat scarcely anything, although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I bought taking your Golden Medical Discovery, and after having taken several bottles am nearly cured of stomach trouble. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. Can now 'thank you for your remedy and wish you all success in your good work.'"

MUST PAY JILTED MAN

Woman Ordered to Return $80 She Got for Wedding Feast.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Municipal Judge Dolan decided Mrs. Henry Goublins must repay John Blusis $80 he gave her with which to purchase a wedding feast when they were to be married two years ago.

Blusis told the Court he gave the woman $80 and then went to St. Charles, Ill., to tell his relatives of his approaching marriage. While there he received this letter: "I've changed my mind. I don't think we could be happy together. I have given the $80 to my brother. He will turn it over to you. Good-by."

Blusis never received the $80, so he brought suit. Mrs. Goublins said her brother must have squandered the money.

NEW WRINKLES AT HOUSEHOLD SHOW ERASE OLD ONES

Pretty Girls at Booth Kept Busy Smoothing Creases of Care on Others.

59 WAYS TO BE HAPPY

Machinery Is Shown That Enables the Man to Do the Family Washing.

There are new wrinkles at the Household Show at the Coliseum and a collection of old ones. The new ones are all over the place. The old ones are all at one booth, where they are removed while you wait by pretty young women whose faces are a smooth advertisement of the wrinkle removers which they demonstrate. The booth is always crowded with women with more wrinkles than they care for and the smooth young women are kept busy smoothing out the creases of care on other persons' faces.

The whole show is a wrinkle-preventer and wrinkle-remover. All the new wrinkles in housekeeping are designed to make households run smoothly and keep the old wrinkles from marring the faces of housewives and housewives' husbands. It is an exposition of the easiest ways of keeping house.

Women are shown 59 ways to be happy though a housekeeper, and men are shown as many ways to help the women to be happy by purchasing for them the machinery of modern housekeeping. Man can have even a greater part in the new order of things. He can do the family washing. Machinery has been invented which makes washday a delight and causes men to want to stay at home and help. A man does his washing at one of the exhibits by the hour and seems to enjoy it.

Scientific cooking and scientific dusting occupy most of the space. More than a dozen different kinds of vacuum cleaners are kept busy taking up dirt and dust. Along with the scientific cooking goes scientific food and there perhaps are more different kinds of free lunch than ever were gathered under one roof before.

The show is to continue two weeks.

CHILD'S GIFT TO JEFFERSON FUND SENT IN STAMPS

CONTRIBUTIONS TO JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

THE announcement of the plans for carrying out the project of the late Joseph Pulitzer for a great Jefferson memorial in New York City is meeting with enthusiastic responses from public men of all shades of political opinion.

Mr. Pulitzer's idea was that the $50,000 he provided in his will for the statue be doubled by popular subscriptions.

The Post-Dispatch will gladly receive, acknowledge and forward contributions.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Alderman Frank L. Dowling transmitted to the Thomas Jefferson Memorial fund the contribution of Dorothy E. Fonden, a school girl. "The enclosed letter," wrote the Alderman, "illustrates in a striking way the enthusiasm evoked by the proposition of the late Joseph Pulitzer for a memorial to ex-President Jefferson."

Here is Dorothy's letter: "To the Board of Aldermen, Mr. Dowling: I enclose 10 cents in stamps for the Jefferson Monument fund. I am a school girl just past 12 years old, of Swedish descent. Hope to see the Jefferson monument in a playground up on the West Side, even if the street runs from City Hall up to the capitol at Albany."

"I am glad to have aldermen to write to, and I will get all the boys and girls to elect some aldermen."

"I remain, your sincere friend, 'DOROTHY E. FONDEN.' Bearing the same name as the Boston banker who contributed $500 to the fund, Thomas Jefferson Coolidge of Mount Joy, Lancaster County, Pa., sent in one dollar, with the following sentiment: 'Applying Gladstone's definition of a statesman as one who advocates measures beneficial to the majority of his fellow countrymen, Thomas Jefferson in results, devotion and foresight has proved to be America's greatest.'"

Movement in Senate for Nation to Buy Jefferson's Home. WASHINGTON, March 20.—Senator Martine of New Jersey has introduced a joint resolution authorizing the appointment of a joint congressional committee to inquire into the feasibility of the purchase of Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's home, by the United States. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Library.

SWIMMER FIGHTS TURTLE

Struggles Against It for 15 Minutes in Palm Beach Surf.

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 20.—John Jordan of Buffalo, a guest of William J. Connors, his brother-in-law, was attacked while bathing by a large turtle, and for 15 minutes, while he tried to defend himself, was threatened with injury or death by drowning. He escaped with bites on the arms and legs, which are not considered serious.

Jordan entered the water alone in front of the Connors tent and was swimming 200 feet from shore when the turtle rose under him, striking at him with its head. Jordan climbed to the turtle's back and, using his feet as a paddle and holding to the flippers, steered it toward shore. Japanese servants rushed out with a clothes line, forming a noose, which they got over the turtle's head. The turtle measured 5 1/2 feet in diameter.

FATAL OUTCOME WAS AVOIDED

Thinks Mrs. Lonsdale, of Eros, by Following the Timely Advice of a Friend.

"I cannot praise Cardui, the woman's tonic, too highly," writes Mrs. A. Lonsdale, of this place, "for I firmly believe that it saved my life."

"I was so poorly that I was hardly able to do any of my housework. I had two doctors, and they said I had gall stones. Their treatment did me no good—only eased the pain for the time being."

"At last I acted on the advice of a friend, and commenced taking Cardui, and am now entirely cured. Cardui has certainly been a god-send to me."

"I am now as stout as I ever was before in my life, can do all my housework, washing and ironing, and carry two buckets of water a quarter of a mile."—Eros, La.

For over half a century, Cardui has been building up the strength of weak, nervous, worn-out women, as well as relieving the most serious symptoms of womanly trouble.

Such symptoms as headache, backache, pain in sides, hot flashes, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, etc., show that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic.

A fair trial will prove its merits. Try it today.

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS 2 WOMEN AND 7 CHILDREN

Two Homes Destroyed and 20 Others Are Damaged at Dunmore, Pa.

By Associated Press.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 20.—In a gas explosion caused, it is thought by mine settlers, nine persons were killed and two injured seriously today in Dunmore, near here. The families, comprising two women and seven children, were either blown to pieces in the explosion or burned in the fire that followed and destroyed three houses.

The dead are: Mrs. John Cavella and her five children, Rose, 3 years old; Dominick, 8; Lucy, 11; Lizzie, 14; William, 20. Mrs. Vito Summa, Mrs. Cavella's daughter, and her two children, Mary, 7, and Frank, 5.

The body of Mary Summa was found in the limbs of a tree 50 feet from the scene of the explosion a half hour after the accident.

More than 20 dwellings were damaged and scores of persons were thrown out of their beds and bruised.

In the last week, nine settlements in the neighborhood of the Cavella home have caused alarm. Only a few days ago the cellar dropped out of a house on the opposite side of the street and several miners climbed to the surface on ladders let down by the women of the house.

Dunmore police say gas from a broken main, caused probably by the mine settlements, found its way into the cellar of the Cavella home, where it gathered in a dense volume and exploded when it came in contact with an oil lamp that was burning in the house.

CATARRH MISERIES ENDED. A SAFE SIMPLE REMEDY GIVES INSTANT RELIEF

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hacking, spitting, blowing of the nose, and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing, and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50-cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. Mothers should give it to the children for colds and croup. It is guaranteed and perfectly harmless. All druggists sell it. Wyeth Chemical Co., New York.

CLARK'S STEAM ROLLER

Speaker Sends Clerk of the House to Work in Arkansas.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Speaker Champ Clark is using the "steam roller," so his antagonists say. He has sent out Jerry South, chief clerk of the House of Representatives, to corral delegates.

Managers of Gov. Wilson in Washington exhibit a letter signed by Champ Clark and addressed to a Democratic politician in Arkansas, in which the Speaker requests the Arkansas to meet South at the Marion Hotel, in Little Rock, saying "Mr. South has kindly consented to help look after my interests in the State."

During the absence of South from Washington his office is being run by his clerks.

CATARRH MISERIES ENDED. A SAFE SIMPLE REMEDY GIVES INSTANT RELIEF

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hacking, spitting, blowing of the nose, and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing, and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50-cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. Mothers should give it to the children for colds and croup. It is guaranteed and perfectly harmless. All druggists sell it. Wyeth Chemical Co., New York.

EIGHT HEADS TO FEEL HEDGES' AX AT BROWNS' CAMP

Two First Basemen and Probably Bill Bailey Among Those Expected to Suffer.

By W. J. O'CONNOR,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 20.

A GUILLOTINE invaded the Browns' camp today, disguised as President R. L. Hedges. The "Colonel" comes here to lob the heads of several juveniles who already have proved they are unfit for duty in the big ring. Who the unlucky ones are is a matter of conjecture; but at least eight of the present crop will be relegated to the discard before many more days.

Wallace has four first-sackers and another man who is trying desperately to forsake the first sack for a catcher's job. Two of these—Danzig and Tennant—surely will hear the rattles of the tin can, while Mr. Miller, the young collegian from Pennsylvania, will be either held or farmed out for the coming season. Miller gives great promise.

George Stovall is a 1 to 10 shot in the betting at present, and unless George breaks an arm or a leg he will guard the initial cushion this summer. Joe Kutina will require months of practice before he ever will round to as a catcher, and there is every indication that Joe already is eager to give up the ghost and return to his favorite trade of first-sacking. As a catcher he has shown little, although Wallace keeps him working with the mitt and mask as much as possible.

That Wallace is sorely in need of another catcher was emphasized yesterday, when Paul Krichell pulled up with a lame back and was forced to remain at the hotel during the afternoon. That left Wallace with Jimmy Stephens as his only receiver, and, as a last resort, Manager Bob called on Lou Chiger, the ancient, when Paul Krichell pulled up and better than most youngsters could do. Kutina is so far from being a catcher that Wallace seldom calls on him in an actual game. Joe's chief duty now is to warm up the pitchers, which he does with indifferent success.

Austin, "the Pepper Kid," Gingers Up the Browns With Wares' Help

HALLINAN is a much improved ball player, but Eddie still has much to learn. However, the manager believes that Eddie will deliver this season if the Frisco boy does, then its curtain on the Scott's career.

The appearance of Jimmy Austin yesterday was a wholesome event on the Browns' day. Austin has more pep than any ball player of the team combined. His only rival is Clyde Wares, the clever little short stop, who is always "walking it up." Clyde is a hustler much after the Austin type. Tom Tennant is a talkative person, but Tom is more of a comedian than ball player.

He gets many a laugh and proved by his actions that he has been working out somewhere in or around Cleveland. Jimmy cut loose with his throws and danced around in mid-season form, much to the delight of his team manager, who is keen to cop the spring series from the Rogers of Rogers.

Speaking of the spring series, it is pertinent to remark that Wallace strongly opposes a return home Thursday night unless the weather conditions there deliver the season. He is loathe to leave his ideal training camp here for a frigid climate in St. Louis.

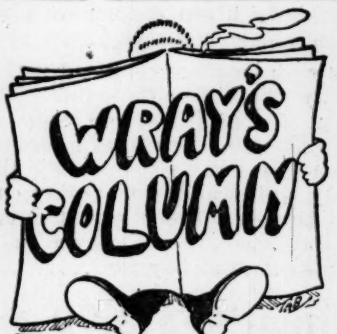

Browns' Scout, Charley Barrett, Will Help Coach Peoria Outfit

Charley Barrett is to do a Monte Cross with Charley Stie's Peoria (Three-I League) team until it's time to hit the trail in the search of young talent for the Browns. Barrett is to have charge of the Peoria youngsters.

Stie has just completed two series of exhibition games for his men. While he is battling with his regulars against Eddie Herre's Hannibal (Central Association) team in Peoria, Barrett will take the Peoria kids to Kewanee for games. They will be played April 24-27.

Barrett will not only try to impart his baseball knowledge to the Three-I League, but will cast his optic over the talent in that league as well as in the Central Association.

Bill Barrenkamp, a graduate of the THEY'RE ALL TO THE BAD. THE "personal contact" sports are always getting into hot water. It's no use trying to get by it when—ever a reformer sees a nose bleed a law or a rule is bound to be changed. To-day is only now beginning to get a toe-hold in the map, after long harrrying, and they're still not through tinkering with the college football game.

The latest to come under advisement of the rector is water polo. It is now believed that this distinctly American game will be completely wiped out, after the present season, owing to the Battle of Pittsburgh Pool, where the tank ran red with the results of too frequent personal contact between Chicago and New York players.

GOOD RULES, BAD REFEREE. A usual, the criticism is all due not to the rules, but the incompetent enforcement of them. M. A. C. players were not interested in the game, but who were present, state that no such scene could have occurred had the referee enforced the rules.

HARVEYZED PROTECTION. HOWEVER, the American game of water polo is not what one might call passive. It's played by young men of notable tenacity, equipped with the most powerful, thirteen-inch armor is recommended for uniform, and if diving apparatus can be worn in addition, all the better.

A set of rubber, non-saturable, self-draining lungs is useful at all times, while a knowledge of the strange hold, the knockout punch and the "hook" down with "me" clutch are essential. N. B.—It may be remarked here that the knockout punch, in this form of naval warfare, is commonly alluded to as a "submarine soak."

WHAT HAPPENS UNDER WATER. I refer to the fact that, even though the referee observe due caution in the enforcement of the laws governing the game, it is impossible to prevent a few hard knocks being taken in the course of engagements. When the chief method of attack consists in taking an opponent to the bottom of the tank and relaying him there to find it takes two or three minutes to half-drown him, there is sure to be something doing which the referee may not perchance see. Twelve feet of murky water can be opaque as milk, at times.

NO MARTYRS AT M. A. C.

IT is never told of the Missouri Athletic Club team that the danger of its decline is that it cannot get any men to practice against it. For, while there is glory in being half-killed for a championship, there is none in playing the tackling dummy for the fellow that's out to win the title.

A TAME CONTEST. ENGLAND has a water polo game, but it's different from the American one. In the first place, scoring goals is not a drowning an opponent is one of the prime objects of the English sport. Over there they advance the ball by throwing it instead of by swimming with it.

Letty Fritz is nursing a lame knee, which was injured in a collision with a liner off Joe Kutina's bat. Fritz is keeping Krichell company in the hospital.

Manager Chance of the Cubs will not countenance a trade of Heinie Zimmerman for Mike Mowrey, the holdout Cardinal third baseman. When asked for his views on the proposed trade, Chance replied: "I'm not after Mowrey. He's a holdout, whereas Zimmerman is signed for three years. I've had enough of holdout players."

Probably even the most ardent of the rough-house school will be glad when the old game is gone. A few pretend to think that any alteration would be a confusion of a nippy-pammy spirit. However that may be, to the man on the outside a-looking in, there's nothing nippy-pammy about wanting to change a sport that requires a life-saving crew at every tank.

Hans-Sunday night. Get the diamond ring at Lottis Bros. on credit. Then I'll marry you.

Al Wasson, the local lightweight wrestler, will meet Charlie Miller at the C. A. C. here Sunday, March 21. The fight will be a workout for the local man, who meets John Billitter April 3 here for the world's lightweight championship.

Wasson holds a technical victory over Billitter, having put that wrestler over the ropes in a bout in which the Toledo man had won the first fall in 20.

McInroy was carried for three weeks with the Colonels last season, but got in only one game. Then he banged out enough hits to give himself a $500 award.

He was turned over to the Frankfort (Blue Grass League) team, where he had a good season, and was recalled by Owner Grayson of the Colonels.

KELLY, IMPROVED, MAY REVERSE KID FARMER'S VICTORY

St. Louis Boy Will Oppose Veteran of Many Bouts in Ring Tonight.

McCary Offers New 122-Pound Champion Contract for $50,000

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 20.

ONE of the biggest gambles ever made on a professional boxer was recorded last night, when Promoter Tom McCary telegraphed Johnny Kilbane, now in Cleveland, offering the world's featherweight champion $50,000 for a two years' contract, calling for the exclusive rights to the services of Kilbane and his manager, Jimmy Dunn, during this time.

"If the proposition is accepted I will require that Kilbane box not only Abe Attell, but as many high-class featherweights as I may develop," explained McCary. "In addition, I would ask Johnny to fill stage engagements and take the principal part in several moving acts I have on hand. He would have to keep moving pretty lively for two years, but then $50,000 is a lot of money."

Kid Farmer and Leo Kelly will box eight rounds at the Irish-American Athletic Club, Wednesday night, the men making 135 pounds. The contest should be especially interesting as showing whether Kelly has really improved much in the last six months, as has been claimed for him.

Kelly battled Farmer at Alton, some months ago, and was outpointed. If he can reverse the decision it will be quite a feather in the cap of the red-haired lad from St. Louis.

Farmer has fought 300 battles in his time, and is an in-and-out-of the professional ring. He is apt at any time to turn the tables on an opponent who may own a knockout over him. In fact, Farmer has taken the count over a dozen times and has afterwards beaten several of the men who stopped him.

Farmer is an old hand, experienced, and may chop Kelly steadily throughout the fight. That he will not hurt the tough Irishman goes without saying.

Three preliminaries arranged are as follows: Johnny Kelly vs. Archie McLeod, 115 pounds. Cotton Billiter vs. Charles Jerabek, 145 pounds.

Lloyd Carter vs. Otto Semf, both former wrestlers.

GOOD SPORT DUE IN DUAL TRACK EVENTS

While the St. Louis University entries outnumber those of Central Y. M. C. A. in the dual track meet in the variety gymnasium Thursday evening, the events promise to be keenly contested. The Hersey, Probst, Kirk and Johnson are depended on mostly by the Y. M. C. A. The St. Louis U. squad has been working out under the direction of Johnny Bender, and is reported to be on edge.

The St. Louis U. relay team has been invited to compete against Nebraska in a four-mile event, but as the local school has only two miles, no entry will be made unless the event is set at 440 or 880 yards for each man. Reed of Nebraska is almost certain to make the American-Olympic team. He is the fastest sprinter in the Missouri Valley.

ALL-EVENTS CHAMP WILL BOWL TODAY

CHICAGO, March 20.—Jimmy Smith of Buffalo, all-events champion of 1911 and regarded as the best bowler in the country, is scheduled to perform in the singles and doubles events of the A. B. C. tournament here today. Another added attraction will be the performance of John E. Briggs, chief of police of South Omaha, who led the posse which killed two of the Lincoln (Neb.) pentitury murderers and captured the third.

Briggs is a member of the Getters Old Boys, which rolled last night. He was present, but didn't roll, as he took his place while he was chasing the escaped school boys. No new marks were created yesterday.

Manager Fred Clarke created himself into the Pirate lineup when the regulars were being beaten by the Tannagers. He went to the right field and struck out the first time. Jack Miller again performed at first, while Donlin played right. Mike keeps stinging the ball.

THREE MORE DAYS. Three more days, each day an agonizing wait until the Duke. With the "Wrecking Crew" will be on hand to get the Browns the hook.

Three more days: Oh, Moly Hoses! Three more days 'till Roderick Dhu with his aggression closed, and may have a chance to defend their honors in a monster aquatic carnival planned in St. Louis in April.

Three more days: Oh, Glory! Glory! Only three until they play; Willie's doing out the story He must tell to get away.

Charles Victory Faust has wished himself on to "Mugsy" McGraw for life, and all the king's horses and all the king's men cannot wish Victory off again.

As a driver of baseball "slaves" Roger Bresnahan is a regular Simon Legree.

Better put the bloodhounds on Mike Mowrey's trail, Roger.

Pitcher Messer is a holdout. As Mr. Kipling would say: "Q's?"

Outfielder Zach Wheat is the flour of the Brooklyn flock. No danger of Wheat getting sacked.

Smatter with Charles Webb Murphy, is he dead?

The lemons do not tarry very long in the limelight.

The canning season is near at hand.

Outfielder Bonin, the Browns' recruit, is said to be a heady player.

St. Leos Oppose Soccer Leaders in Today's Game

NEW YORK, March 20.—The St. Leo's soccer team came to New York with the vernal equinox today, confident of cleaning up the Pawtucket team, which won the American cup, emblematic of the championship of the American Football Association, last year.

The Howard & Bulough team is made up of employees of that firm's tool factory in Pawtucket and was the first New England team to win the American cup since 1884, when it was captured by the Olympics of Fall River. The H. & B. team has been in the cup contest for three years. They were in again this year, but were beaten last Saturday and put out of the cup contest.

The Soccer Guide of 1911 says: "That the H. & B.'s were lucky in drawing several house teams in the competition cannot be denied. Only once, in the first round, were they drawn to travel."

MATHEWS BATTERS DALY IN SPRINGFIELD FIGHT

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 20.—Place Mathews of St. Louis added another light-weight scalp to his victory belt last night when he outpointed Tommy Daly of Buffalo in his home town Tuesday night.

Daly slipped soon after the opening of the seventh and fell to the mat, spraining his ankle severely. He continued, however, through the round, when the bout was stopped by Referee Jimmie Bronson of Joplin.

The annual Harvard-Yale shell race is scheduled on the Thames river June 21.

Miss Anna Hanson of Tacoma created a world's record for a woman shot when she broke 45 targets out of a possible 50 on a 20-yard indoor range.

M. A. C. Polo Champions to Defend Title at Home

Local Club Is Planning to Stage Monster Aquatic Meet in Connection With A. A. U. Title Game.

The Missouri Athletic Club water polo team still retains the A. A. U. championship, despite the disagreeable ending of the tournament involving the title in the Pittsburgh A. A. tank last week, and may have a chance to defend their honors in a monster aquatic carnival planned in St. Louis in April.

The M. A. C. officials want to stage a water meet at the Crystal pool if the A. A. U. decides that the games for the championship are to be replayed, the local club will likely file an application for a sanction to hold the water polo games in connection with the other events.

Besides the M. A. C., teams of the Chicago A. A. and New York A. A. have entered the polo championship meet in Pittsburgh. The M. A. C. team drew a bye and the Chicago and New York teams mixed last Friday night.

According to members of the M. A. C. team who have returned to St. Louis, the Chicago and New York teams "That a competent referee will be selected to handle the games goes without saying."

Men Ordered From Tank.

The game was declared to be no contest and the men were ordered from the tank. The Pittsburgh A. A., which staged the meet, refused to have anything more to do with the championships, however, the M. A. C. men asked that they be permitted to give an exhibition, to show how the game should be played.

According to an exhibition between the M. A. C. and C. A. A. teams was put on. The Chicagoans won by the score of 5 to 0, although the title did not hinge on this contest.

Everett Brown, president of the Central A. A. U., on his return to Chicago, announced that the Chicago team had won the A. A. U. championship by defeating the M. A. C. six. The understanding before the game was that the championship was not at stake, according to the M. A. C. men, Secretary Sullivan's plan to investigate the matter verifies this fact.

Newcomb Will File Report

Norton Newcomb, a member of the M. A. C. Athletic Committee, accompanied the swimmers to Pittsburgh and will probably be the man to file the report with Secretary Sullivan.

SALLEE IS READY TO HURL 'EM OVER IN FIRST BATTLE

Slim Southpaw Appears to Be in Best Shape of Any of Cardinals' Pitchers.

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JACKSON, Miss., March 20.—Harry Sallee, following his excellent showing for five rounds in yesterday's workout, will probably be Manager Bresnahan's selection to twirl the opening game for the Cardinals against the Browns in St. Louis Saturday. The slat looks fit and heaved them over with lots of speed and curves yesterday.

He occupied the hill for the Yannigans and wanted to go the entire route, but Bresnahan, fearing some ill result, would not consent. Sallee was chased to the sidelines and Bill Steele came on. Steele is a close second to Sallee when it comes to being fit and will probably share the two opening games with the southpaw.

Bob Harmon's arm is not as badly hurt as at first believed. The iron man said it still pained him as a result of a too vigorous workout, but he was included in the squad that practiced yesterday. He took this easy and says he believes the same brand of exercise will find him ready in four or five more days.

Ewing May Oppose Browns.

In speaking of pitchers, Bob Ewing is not to be overlooked. The veteran is playing away at a good gait and it wouldn't be surprising if he is shown in the spring frolics with the Browns. That of course, depends considerably on the weather, as it would be unwise to hurl him in the cold.

Another man whom Bresnahan can fall back on in the pinch is Louie Larnage. He got in part of yesterday's game and turned out well. He looks as if he is ready.

Manager Bresnahan said he intended going to Meridian, Miss., to see the game between the Cardinals and the Yankees. It is said that A. U. to conduct a business. It is said that A. U. to conduct a business. It is said that A. U. to conduct a business.

Bauer trimmed Prior in the business men's three-knot tournament at Peterson's, 200-149. Kline and Thomas met Wednesday.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

Every old sore is due to the ulceration of flesh tissues. The superficial abrasion or opening may have come as the result of a scratch, burn, cut, or some other wound, but the place remains open and of a chronic nature because the tissues and flesh fibres beneath the skin are in an unhealthy condition from a polluted blood supply.

Even if it were possible to subdue the ulceration of the flesh and produce an antiseptic and cleanly condition of the sore with medicines applied to the external opening, such treatment could not bring about any permanent curative results. Deep down in the blood there is a continual cause at work to prevent the place from healing.

If we expect a permanent cure it is not the SORE but the BLOOD which must be cleansed. Then the morbid matter and infectious germs will be destroyed, and the flesh, becoming healthy, will knit and join together, and the ulcer can no longer exist. We do not mean to say one should never use any external treatment for an old sore, for we realize that some salves, lotions, etc., are often very soothing to the irritated and painful flesh. But the person who depends on such measures alone, and makes no effort to purify the blood, will never find a cure, and the place is sure to grow worse and enlarge.

Only by cleansing the blood of the poisonous cause can old sores be cured. S. S. S. heals them by going down into the circulation and removing the cause from the blood. When this has been done there is no longer left any inflammatory impurity or infectious matter to irritate the place, and nature causes the natural and certain healing of the ulcer. When S. S. S. has purified the blood and the place is once more nourished with pure, rich blood, then every symptom disappears, and it is not a temporary cure, but the place is firmly and solidly healed from the bottom to the outer skin. S. S. S. is recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, and therein lies its ability to cure old sores.

It is purely vegetable, containing no mineral in any form, and its fine tonic effects are always helpful in overcoming the impure systemic effects of an old sore.

We have a special treatise on Old Sores which will be glad to send free to all who desire it. It contains the statements of many cured persons as to the value of S. S. S. We will also be glad to send you any medical advice you desire free of charge.

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative. Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear. Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of Mrs. J. S. Stanley, Seymour, Mo., and Mrs. Benjamin Lockhart, 2728 University St., St. Louis, Mo., the only laxative given is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from griping recommend it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size), can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

MRS. GRACE OUT ON BAIL, GOES TO MOTHER

"Oh! I am So Happy" She Says as She Starts for Philadelphia.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 20.—Mrs. Daisy Ople Grace, charged with shooting her husband, Eugene H. Grace, who is not expected to live, was released on $500 bail from jail at midnight and departed at 12:25 this morning for Philadelphia, where it is said, she will visit her mother.

Mrs. Grace's bond was signed by J. J. Dain, a former deputy sheriff, and J. C. Clark, both of Atlanta. Accompanied by John W. Moore and J. A. Branch, her attorneys, Mrs. Grace was driven to the terminal station. Two tickets to Philadelphia were purchased and it is understood one of Mrs. Grace's attorneys went to that city.

Mrs. Grace's only words spoken publicly after her release were to a friend who wished her "Good luck" on her journey. She called back, "Thank you," and added, "Oh! I am so happy."

ST. LOUIS FACTORY GIRLS DRESS LIKE ENGLISH "LADIES"

Sculptor Writes Observations on This City on Return to Plymouth, England.

DISCUSSES LIVING COST

Harry Hems, Who Installed Christ Church Reredos, Found Hat and Shoes Cheap.

St. Louis tobacco factory girls dress as well as the English "ladies" dress in England, according to Harry Hems, English sculptor, who recently returned home after installing the reredos, or stone altar screen, in Christ Church Cathedral.

Hems' observations on St. Louis matters are contained in an article which he contributed to a recent issue of the Western Mercury, published in Plymouth, England. The article is headed "The Cost of Living at St. Louis (Mo.), U. S. A."

Hems does not say that the cost of living in St. Louis is low, though he does say that he bought a hat and a pair of shoes as cheaply as he could have done in England. Most articles of apparel, he says, cost more than in England, but the people, he declares, are dressed better in St. Louis than in England.

Great Water Drinkers. A previous article by Hems in the same paper alluded to the tariff, a live question in England, and thus started a controversy. Hems gives this controversy much attention in his second article. The remainder of the article is as follows:

"It is the wholesome custom of the American people to rarely take anything but water (followed perchance by a cup of coffee) for their noonday meal. At the various restaurants at such times beer and spirits are practically eschewed. Water (and at St. Louis most excellent water, too) is the favorite beverage. The average American consumes a small bucket of ice aqua pura every day of his life; at some seasons of the year probably considerably more.

Experience Buying Clothes.

"My experience in the purchase of clothes during my recent six months' residence in St. Louis was extremely limited. I bought an ordinary brown felt hat in Market street, at a shop near the railway station, a terminus which is only second in size in the whole country to the new one belonging to the Pennsylvania line in New York, this latter reputed to be the largest and most costly building of that kind in the world. The cost of the hat was $1 (4s 6d). I should certainly have had to give 4s 6d or 5s 6d for it in this country.

"When the snow began to fall last November (having only tan shoes with me) I purchased a stout pair of winter boots at a store in Franklin avenue, and paid $3.50 (14s 7d) for them. This price, my shoemaker in High street, Exeter (who has seen them), tells me is about the same as he would charge here for a similar class of boot. About the same time I bought a pair of thick winter gloves, in Sixth street, for which the cost was half a dollar (2s 1d). At one of the immense department stores for which St. Louis is famed, I got a dozen pocket handkerchiefs, for which I gave 12 cents (6d) apiece. That comprises the whole of my purchases in the way of personal attire.

Clothing Costs More.

"As a matter of fact, men's clothes and ladies' costumes cost far more there than they do in this country. But in spite of this, both sexes dress infinitely better than they do in England. This assertion applies to all classes of society. The average workingman almost invariably takes off his clothes—or some of them—during the hours of labor, and substitutes overalls (these may be obtained for an outlay of from a half to one dollar). Hence it is that a carpenter, for instance, when seen in the streets going to and from his work looks like his confrere in this country does when arrayed in his church-going apparel.

"As for the opposite sex, it is rare that any but a well-dressed one is seen out of doors. A large tobacco manufactory existed not far from Christ Church Cathedral, and when the many hundreds of girls employed there left work, on the termination of a day's labor (at 5 p. m.) one would think, by their appearance, they were all "ladies."

In some avocations, almost entirely monopolized by the opposite sex, extremely good money is earned. The typewriters (stenographers they are termed) are much in evidence in this respect. Their wages vary according to position occupied. There are comparatively few who cannot demand $10 ($2 is 8s) a week, and not a few, holding responsible appointments, are paid sums rising as high as $30 ($6 10s). Their working hours are seldom more than 44 a week, often much less."

He repeats the praise of St. Louis and its people which appeared in his previous article, and declares that he met here "some of the most charming people I have ever been intimately associated with in all my life."

BITUMINOUS MINERS EXPECTED TO STRIKE

Men and Operators Meet in Cleveland in Final Effort to Settle Differences.

CLEVELAND, O., March 20.—Three hundred thousand soft coal miners will strike April 1 in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, unless mine operators and union officials decide from the position they took in conferences here last night. A suspension of work is regarded as inevitable.
Operators and miners met at the Hotel Hamilton this morning in a final effort to settle their differences before the present wage contract expires, March 31.
"We will stand out for the demands of our men, and we want quick action," said John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America.
"There is little time for parley, and there must be no delay due to preliminary skirmishing."
"Either we get our increase or we will have to do as we always do when we cannot agree—strike," said Secretary George W. Savage of the Ohio union.

MEN FRIENDS 22 YEARS

Plaintiff Tells Judge Harper Settled Alienation Claim and He Gets Divorce.

Joseph T. Lugton obtained a divorce in Judge Shields' court Tuesday from Louise Lugton, 349 St. Ferdinand avenue, to whom he was married 25 years ago. Lugton declared that his happiness was shattered through learning that his wife was interested in his employer and friend, John W. Harper, foreman at the Velled Prophet den, 2120 Walnut street. Harper recently paid Lugton $1500 in compromise of a suit for alienation threatened by Lugton, the plaintiff told the court.

Friends for Years.
Lugton said he worked for Harper for 22 years as a designer and builder of floats for the Velled Prophet's parade in St. Louis and similar parades elsewhere. Their long business relations had caused them to become close friends.

Mrs. Lugton's interest in Harper was revealed to her husband, he testified, through his finding a letter in an old waistcoat belonging to Harper in Portland, Ore., in 1907. According to Lugton, the waistcoat had been given to him by Harper to sell.

Found the Letter.
"At my leisure," said the witness, "I went through the pockets to see if there were anything of value and found the letter. It began 'my darling sweet-heart' and closed 'from your true sweet-heart, Lou.'"

"Although I had never suspected my wife I recognized it as her writing," he added.

Lugton returned to St. Louis and confronted Mrs. Lugton. He said she protested innocence. He, believing her, did not leave her. Nor were the cordial relations between him and Harper disturbed at that time, Lugton said.

Shadowed His Wife.
Subsequently Lugton's suspicions were aroused by something he had heard and he resolved to "shadow" his wife. He said he and John A. Smith followed her, and according to the testimony of both men, saw her enter the Velled Prophet Den one night while Harper was there. Then the lights in the place were turned low, it was testified.

Mrs. Lugton did not resist the suit.

Mystery of Epidemic on Vessel Cleared by Discovery of His Condition.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 20.—Mystery attending a persistent epidemic of typhoid fever aboard the Acme, a lumber vessel of the A. W. Beadle Lumber Co., has been cleared, and the cause removed through a consultation of State health officers.
Harry Olson, 40, foreman hand, was discovered to be the carrier of typhoid germs. Olson's record equals that of "Typhoid Mary," who spread the disease wherever she went. Olson is believed to have communicated typhoid to 28 members of the crew since Aug. 10, when he entered the ship's service. Four cases were fatal.

It was decided that Olson should enter the United States Marine Hospital in San Francisco to remain until all traces of the typhoid bacteria had disappeared.

Sergt. Stangler and two patrolmen were at Broadway and Pine streets at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday, when they heard a crash of glass. They found someone had thrown a brick through a window of the August Kern Barber Supply Co., 16 South Broadway.

While they were standing in front of that place they heard another crash of glass. They found that a brick also had been thrown through a window of the Henry Miller jewelry store, 9 South Sixth street. Nothing was taken from either place. The policemen arrested two men, who were standing across the street from Miller's place.

Be sure to get only the genuine (Globe) Concentrated Pine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a tin screw-top sealed case. MUTUAL JEALOUSY CAUSES WEDDING OF STAGE STARS

Mutual jealousy convinced Miss Irmaid Diederich, star of the Odeon's German stock company, and Georg La Tour Albrecht, its stage manager and first tenor, that they loved each other. And so they were married and intend to live happily ever afterward.

"My husband," the bride exclaimed happily as she explained to a Post-Dispatch reporter how the romance grew. "He is mine. All the girls love him, all of them wanted him, but I marry him!"

The handsome young husband, idol of the young women who have seen him play at the Odeon, admitted that he discovered his great yearning for the pretty leading lady when he observed that many other young men were paying court to her.

Mrs. Albrecht is an attractive blonde. She has been residing at 3967 Finney avenue, and Albrecht at 3989.

A Clear Complexion

A woman may have features of classic beauty, and the form of a Venus still if she has a blotchy, pimply skin, her natural attractions are lost in the contemplation of this disfigurement. Pimples are the direct result of impure blood, which is usually caused by bad digestion and improper care of the bowels. It is easy to quickly remove facial blemishes by the use of a simple compound of the good old home remedies. This prescription is now put out under the name of Tono-Lax and can be purchased from any well-stocked drug store in original packages which cost but 25 cents. Take a teaspoonful in a tumbler of water before breakfast three times a week. You will be astonished to see how quickly the pimples disappear, and the skin is transformed from grossy blotchiness to velvety fairness. Be sure to get the genuine Tono-Lax. If your druggist does not keep it or tries to substitute, insist that he order for you from his wholesaler. If you live out of town and cannot be supplied send 25 cents and name of your druggist to Security Remedy Co., St. Louis, Mo. They will send you a package postpaid.—ADV.

Spend Some Time Before You Spend Your Money—

Its the truest kind of economy to spend some time investigating player pianos before you spend money acquiring one. The right player piano in your home will prove a source of year-in, year-out enjoyment. The wrong one will only serve to mirror the pleasure the right one will yield.

So before you buy be sure and try every well known player piano. And above all, for the sake of finding what you want before you buy rather than after, be sure and see the Apollo Player Piano. It represents all that the world of piano music has to offer. The advent of the Apollo into your home opens the gates of twenty thousand separate and distinct musical selections to you and your family. And the best proof of the Apollo's worth is the fact that it will play any one of these twenty thousand selections, no matter what its nature, just as it should be played—just as the composer intended.

Think of being able to accent the melody of a composition or omit it altogether. The Apollo is the only player piano in the world that does this. And tempo or time can be rendered correctly by anyone with the aid of the Tempograph Device. The Apollo's Metronome Motor winds or rewinds the longest rolls without pedaling. These are but a few of the many exclusive features of the Apollo—features which, when the patents expire, will be copied by all manufacturers but are today exclusive with the Apollo.

Just for the sake of seeing the best as well as the rest hear the Apollo. We'll gladly demonstrate for you.

J. Baalman, one of the foremost pharmacists in San Francisco, after years of study, has completed a combination of active principles from certain plants, that cure the cause of stomach Gas, viz: Nervous irritability of the stomach. Mr. Baalman has called his discovery Baalman's Gas Tablets, and since its introduction, January 1, 1911, has cured more than 30,000 cases of the worst type of Gas in Bowels and Stomach. THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM.
I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

THE ANTI-MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN.

Health Commissioner Starkloff indorses with commendable promptness the Post-Dispatch suggestion that St. Louis should drive the mosquito out of her borders with the weapons which have proven so effective in Panama.

"I am trying to get figures showing what it will probably cost us to do it," says the Health Commissioner. The Board of Health is in favor of it. With this good beginning, supported by the testimony of all the St. Louisans who saw something of the beneficence of the anti-mosquito work in the canal zone during the winter, the movement ought to be carried with fine dispatch. In addition to dealing a death blow to malaria and ridding the city of a nightly pest, the anti-mosquito campaign would do wonders for the general cleanliness and wholesomeness of the community. The City of Panama, with 60,000 population, has been transformed from one of the filthiest places in the world to the new spotless town by the war on mosquitoes. It is the most striking exposition of killing two birds with one stone to be seen anywhere on earth.

All St. Louis needs is the will and the money. The way has been demonstrated.

THE FOUR POWERS' FINANCIERS think Premier T'ing a trickster. Which evidently signifies that the eminent Chinese is not to be bamboozled by said financiers into transacting all his country's financial business with them.

PAROLES AND POLITICS
With the parole system on trial, the paroling of members of political "gangs" in St. Louis from the penitentiary at Jefferson City is not timely when factions are striving for the control of the city.

In cases reported in which St. Louis ward workers have been paroled, it is said that one has a local ward leader as his sponsor. Under conditions likely to exist in St. Louis ward politics, anyone who has been kept in the penitentiary until his reform is more nearly complete than that of election-fixers outside is likely to be, is subjected to too severe a strain when he is sent to associate with them while they are "pulling off" elections.

In order that the parole system, as it applies to St. Louis, may have the fair trial it deserves, its operations should be held in severe check until after November.

North Dakota primaries may or may not be a blow to Roosevelt. But there seems no room for doubt as to the message they convey to Taft.

FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE.
Manuel L. Quezon, the resident commissioner of the Filipino people, who is pleading for the independence of the Philippines, is right when he declares that the United States will gain more by giving the Filipinos self-government than by holding the islands.

In considering our gain we may leave out of consideration the enormous cost of keeping the Filipinos in subjection, which has amounted to $750,000,000. Trade does not follow the flag unless colonization follows conquest. Trade follows good will. We cannot colonize the Philippines, but we can gain the lasting gratitude and good will of the Filipinos by giving them autonomy under our protection or under an agreement of neutrality with other powers.

As enemies kept in subjection by might the Philippines would be a costly liability and a source of great danger in the event of war in the Pacific. But as a friendly people under obligation to us for liberty they would be an asset and a source of strength.

On the questions of the capacity and preparedness of the Filipinos for self-government Mr. Quezon's addresses are highly enlightening to the average American. In percentage of literacy, in means of transportation and communication, in proportion of savages to civilized people the Filipinos have a great advantage over our fathers when our independence of Great Britain was won. Out of nearly 8,000,000 people there are only 400,000 living in savagery. The interest of the United States more than the interest of the Philippines urges the prompt declaration of our intention to give the Filipinos independence. And the act should not lag far behind the pledge.

SYCOPHANCY.

"If . . . the people . . . have not the character and intelligence to enable them after two years' deliberation, after seeing the whole matter thrashed out by the Legislature and before the executive and by the court, and finally by public speakers in an election, to themselves decide what they meant when they framed the constitution, then it is idle to talk of their being fit to frame a constitution."—Theodore Roosevelt's defense of the result of judicial decisions in the Outlook.

It is idle to talk of "the people" being fit to frame a constitution, and Theodore Roosevelt knows it. "The people"—and by "the people" we mean the average hodcarrier, the average banker, the average mechanic, the average doctor, the average clerk, the average merchant, the average laborer, the average capitalist—"the people" is, and always has been, and probably always will be unable to frame a constitution. "The People" has had the good sense never to attempt to frame one. It has always delegated its unquestioned right to build its constitutions to a few chosen experts in the science and art of government. In the most illustrious example of constitution-making two million and a half of Americans selected 55 specialists to frame the constitution of the United States. And having taken no part in framing it, "the people" took no direct part in ratifying or repudiating it, but again delegated this function to state conventions, uninstructed, with full powers of deliberation and decision. And when a question arose as to whether the constitution needed amendments, the people were wise enough not to seek to determine such a question by their own direct judgment, expressed through instructions, but left the question to their respective State legislatures.

The same is true of the framing of every constitution of every state and where amendments to state constitutions are voted on by the people, Mr. Roosevelt well knows what proportion of the total vote is cast on such amendments.

The American people is pre-eminently capable of self-government precisely because it has the wisdom to know its own limitations, and to leave to men of specialized knowledge and training the drafting of its charters of liberty and the watch and ward over these charters. As a man who attempts to be his own lawyer has a fool for a client, so a people which attempted to frame its own constitution would have a fool for its ruler.

And now comes Mr. Roosevelt with the proposition that the people having left the formulation of its constitutions to experts, should undertake the interpretations of its constitutions itself—that a patient, having decided that a doctor was the best person to diagnose and prescribe for him, should, when the prescription tasted bitter, arrogate to himself the analysis of the medicine to decide whether or not the dose would be efficacious.

Mr. Roosevelt pays a sorry compliment to the American people when he deems it capable of forsaking the wisdom of its past for the vanity of such a future.

That the people has a right to do anything which a sufficiently powerful majority desires, no one questions. It has a right to set up Buddhism as the established religion, compulsory polygamy as a law of the land, free silver as the currency system, and the recall of judicial decisions as the supreme decree. But it is the glory of the people that they have the sense not to do a great many things that they have the right to do.

Lincoln trusted the people because he knew that they could not fool all of them all the time; Jefferson trusted them because he knew that they would not fool themselves the better part of the time, and Roosevelt trusts them because he thinks that times have changed.

Reports from the Ozarks indicate that some are just as pessimistic about the peach crop as J. Ham Lewis was about the country when he spoke in East St. Louis.

THE REPUBLICAN SPLIT.

The Republican convention of the Fourteenth Congressional District is a fair exhibit of the conditions in the Republican party throughout the State. There was a fight for possession of the hall at Poplar Bluff, attempts by both Taft and Roosevelt men to organize the convention followed by a bolt. In the Fourteenth the Taft men bolted; in the Third the Roosevelt men; in Kansas City the Taft men repudiated the primaries and named separate delegates.

In Missouri it is the Federal machine against the State machine. In many other parts of the country similar conditions prevail. In the Chicago convention there will be two sets of delegates for many states and a host of congressional districts. The result will hang on the outcome of contests. If the Roosevelt delegates manage to represent a majority of the convention are thrown out, what will happen? Will there be a bolt? Will the Roosevelt men submit in the end to treatment against which they revolted during the campaign.

The situation in the Republican party this year is more interesting and uncertain than at any other time in its history since the liberal Republican movement. The present split is nearer the middle than that of 1872.

North Dakota, expected to be susceptible to the appeal of the Buffalo Bill of national politics, declared for a man who, as far as known from his biography, never fired off a gun.

PITIFUL DR. MARY WALKER.

When Dr. Mary Walker collapsed on a train running into New York, the probability is that her condition would have attracted attention earlier and brought remedial treatment, had she been clothed in feminine instead of the masculine attire she has affected so long.

There may be women who can wear the full costume of men without serious impairment of feminine attractiveness, but Dr. Mary was not one of them. During the greater part of her life-time, she made her delicate figure hideous in an unmodified masculine suit that gave her the appearance of a too aspiring boy who had borrowed his father's coat, waistcoat, shirt, necktie, collar and trousers. She did it in her protest against all conventions that restrict women's sphere. The utility of it all is pitiful. There are those who generously attribute to her some of the progress made toward the object at which she aimed. As a matter of fact, she cheapened the movement. The cause of women has moved on, but Dr. Mary Walker has really done more to hold it back than to press it forward. Hers was a futile martyrdom.

The value of publicity depends on its quality. Freak methods applied to great movements that must depend for success on appeal to serious thought do more harm than good.

A Chicago jury has given a verdict of $25,000 damages against a university professor who wrote a girl that he "would kiss her into dreamland by absent treatment." Should have been $100,000.

NORTH DAKOTA.
North Dakota, adopted State of the Colonel, goes strongly for La Follette, who is not even a step-relation to it. This was the first statewide presidential primary ever held in the country. It declared for the life-long advocate of direct nominations, not the eleventh hour convert, for the real representative of progressive ideas, not the sham.

The farther you get away from g. o. p. bosses and former Roosevelt appointees and the nearer to the people, the more stubborn you will find the belief in the old-fashioned tradition of two terms for the national executive. If they ever consent to depart from it, it will be concession to some man less grasping of power, less contemptuous of reasonable and lawful restraint, less dangerous to American institutions than Mr. Roosevelt.

"Cheatham left a trail as broad and luminous as that of an ocean liner," says Detective O'Brien. Yes, all the way back to St. Louis, to his own house and his own bedroom.

A girl who wore a $300 hat was expelled from Chicago University. Shades of John D! What next?

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Street Cleaner's Pay.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

There is one class of city employees who need an increase in pay above all others and that is the men who keep our streets clean. I was told by a number of these men, that have been in the department for years, that the average amount the district men receive each month is about $30. The block men average a little more. They are all paid at the rate of $1.50 per day, but the district men get in nothing like steady time, while the block men are given a better opportunity to get in full time, thus creating the little difference in the monthly pay of the two.

I worked some time this winter in one of these district gangs, and the majority of the men in this gang were old men and one of them told me, the others also expressing the same sentiments, "It is a shame the manner in which we are treated. We are old men and therefore have not the opportunity to better ourselves as a younger man has. We give the city a good day's work and for this they pay us a starvation wage. They let the policemen and firemen ride free on the street cars, but we must pay, which cuts our already small pay down several dollars each month."

A bill has been up several times to place these men on a salary basis and increase the amount they receive, but it is always killed by those men who are always creating so many high salaried city offices for their friends.

Anyone can figure out for themselves how well these men with families live on $30 per month. The people of Mexico do about as well.

NO, NOT A SOCIALIST.

In Defense of Virginia.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

An afternoon paper in its issue of the 15th inst. says: "Will the correspondents in Mexico pause long enough to advise all American to escape from Virginia?"

This is a sweeping indictment of the whole state, rich in history and full of noble, upright citizens. There are several hundred thousand native born Virginians and their descendants in Missouri and Illinois, and they should make a note of the terrible indictment hurled at their very flesh and blood by this St. Louis paper.

If any paper anywhere were to urge all Americans to flee from St. Louis because a headless man was found in the city in an ashtray, and because of the thugs, thieves, holdups and murders committed here, that paper would be held in just contempt by all respectable citizens of the city. A vast majority of the people of St. Louis, as well as of Virginia, can be properly classed with the best people of the world. W. WILBURCORN.

"Roosevelt the Boss."

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
No reader of the great dailies of this and other cities will hesitate to do the Post-Dispatch the simple justice of saying that its power is and has been for years unsurpassed. Being burdened with faults in almost all respects, may I say it may be weak or unjust in saying that the logic of even so great a paper seems not to be faultless in its editorial of this date, entitled, "Roosevelt, the Boss."

It is not true that all reasoning is syllogistic, either in form or content. And if so, is it not necessary, as well as fair, that the major premise, whether expressed or understood, be unquestioned, in order to arrive at a correct conclusion?

In the editorial named does not your premise consist of the statement that Roosevelt is a "boss" and the affinity of the protected trust barons? If so, will you permit me to challenge its correctness, and therefore the conclusion, that he is not the people's friend and must not be trusted by them.

I ask these questions at a time which we all feel to be momentous in the history of our country, and wholly, I trust, in the interest of the people. We all know that you are fully prepared to "show" by an unquestioned array of facts, the correctness of your premises. If they be true, and the great effect of such a showing upon the public mind. And we also feel that you will be sufficiently fair and just in this interesting and vital question, not to take anything for granted—not to assume that which (am I correct in saying?) the great bulk of the plain American people do not feel or concede to be true—that Roosevelt is in fact their enemy, because of him being allied, in the capacity of a stalking-boss, with their enemies, and therefore, with the great enemies of our loved country—the interests above named.

T. S. BURNETT.

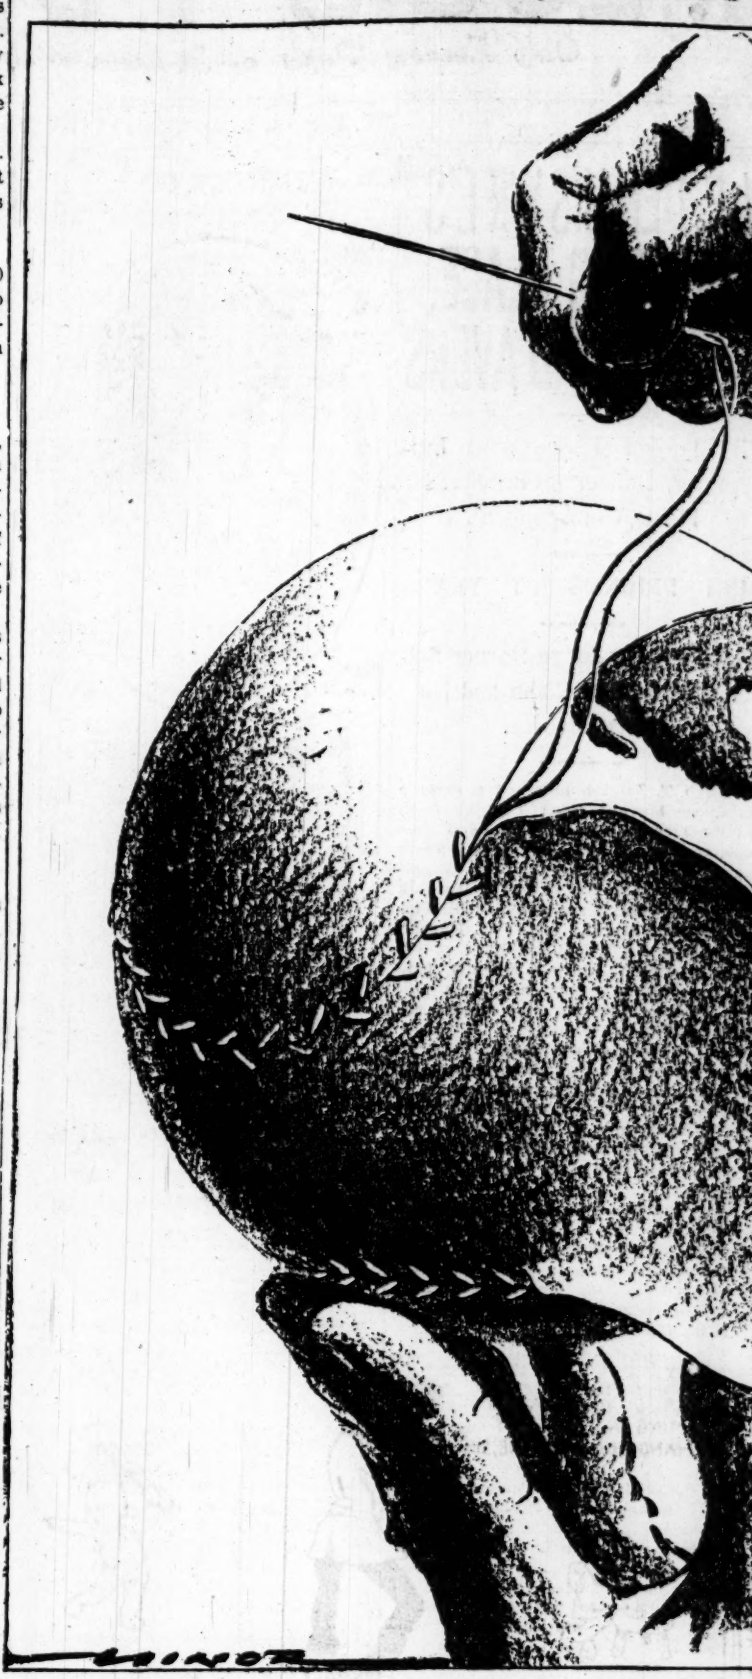

A New Deal.

As the Editor of the Post-Dispatch has editorialized candidates new "runners" and start a new deal. The Socialists are right in waiving the man and exalting the principle—when there is a principle to exalt, which is not the case in the "great" political parties. Imagine the Democratic party talking of Jefferson or the Republican party of Lincoln. Could anything be more grotesque? Clean out the whole bunch of pirates and elect Burger president.

GETTING READY.

THE SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM.

Regina Well.
From the New York Evening Mail.
The School of Journalism begins well. Talcott Williams represents the best and soundest newspaper ideas. He has boxed the compass of journalistic activities and he can speak eloquently for the newspaper on the rostrum. Nothing that he teaches his students will ever have to be concealed from their friends.

Exceptionally Strong Appointment.
From the Philadelphia Press.
Dr. Williams' experience as a journalist and his high standing among the newspaper men of the country will, we believe, cause the appointment to be recognized as an exceptionally strong one. It places the School of Journalism in its formative stage under the direction of a man who answers all the requirements of newspaper standing and experience and who is at the same time an educator by instinct.

An Excellent Selection.

From the Philadelphia Press.
Columbia University could not have made a better selection for director of the Pulitzer School of Journalism than Dr. Talcott Williams, long connected with the Press of this city. His life has been spent in this occupation; his experience has been varied as well as long; his professional standards have always been of the highest, and his literary work has brought him an enviable reputation and the distinction of university degrees. No one is better qualified to plan the work of this school or to infuse the students with high ideals of the usefulness and the responsibilities of newspaper work. He will be missed not only in Philadelphia journalism but in the intellectual and philanthropic life of the city.

Next Notch, Please!

From the Jonesboro (N. C.) News.
Somebody said the News lied when it quoted Mr. A. R. Rives as driving a mile and slaughtering a cow and bringing it to his market in 45 minutes. Mr. Rives says "if it is a lie he told it, but fortunately it is the truth this time, and if forced to he can go still another notch." He says he "killed a calf not long ago and dressed it ready for the refrigerator in 12 minutes." Here's where we quit.

The "Grizzly Bear."

From Puck.
English Tourist (In Bloody Gulch hotel): By the way, old top, is the grizzly bear common around here? Landlord: "Used to be, but it's extinct now. Why, even Three-Fingered Ike won't allow it in his dance hall."

Marvelous.

From the Meanderer Blatter.
"How well you are looking!"
"Yes, I am a vegetarian."
"That settles it. I shall never eat meat again. How long have you been one?"
"I begin tomorrow."

Cash.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel.
A primrose by a river's brim
An iron dollar was to him
And it was nothing more.

GETTING READY.

THE SURPRISED MEADOWLARK.

Written for the Post-Dispatch by Clark McAdams

ON a shed in the West End a meadowlark sat singing, "Houses—more houses—more houses!" With the tail of his eye on a neighboring cat, singing, "Houses—more houses—more houses!" "Has the change here astonished you, birdie?" I cried.

"Were the flowers here sweet, and the meadowland wide?" With a nod of his sad little head he replied, "O houses—more houses—more houses!"

"REMEMBER last Summer," the meadowlark said, "O houses—more houses—more houses!"

"The grass around here was as high as your head. O houses—more houses—more houses!"

From De Baliviere west to the crest of the hill The country was lovely and primitive still, And we never once thought it would presently fill, O houses—more houses—more houses!"

"T was only last Autumn I quitted the place, O houses—more houses—more houses!"

To dwell in the tropical climate a space, O houses—more houses—more houses!"

I left without thought of divisions and plats, And return to this finest of old habitats To find it all houses, apartments and flats, O houses—more houses—more houses!"

POOR WIDOW.—Better first write Civil service office, 30 and Olive, St. Louis, and get full information.

OLE.—A non-resident cannot act as executor or administrator of deceased's estate, under the Missouri law.

H. H. J. J.—Why not try the book stores and Public Library for information as to methods of self-defense?

READER.—To have landlord clean paper left soiled by former tenant you would have to get his agreement in writing.

ANDY.—Under the circumstances you would receive everything; the furniture you could claim by rights accorded you as wife.

PLEASE.—Those 3p blisters are herpes facialis. Apply grain alcohol to the spots frequently, or paint with collodion at the start.

M. B.—Law requires that the cigar dealer shall hand box to customer, the box being returned after the cigars have been picked out.

NEWLYWED.—You ask more about 408 than we can answer. It does not cure every case. Many physicians give mercury at the same time.

A. H. S.—Third anniversary presents: All sorts of leather goods, from the daintiest purse to the latest trunk, chairs, couches and boots and shoes are mentioned.

N. P. M.—Bright boy may seek employment among neighbors, for spare time; or some show might have use for him; or he could sell newspapers. He would need license if he peddled.

FARMER.—Greene County (Springfield) surplus dairy products: Butter, 510,000 lbs. cheese (chiefly cottage), 23,400 lbs. milk and cream, 47,400 gals. Dairies, Leander and Republic.

W. F. B.—Whether tax title would be good depends upon the entire proceeding; if the suit was properly conducted the title may turn out clear, but as a rule such is not the case and fine result.

A. Z. B. Y.—It is bad form to merely inclose a stamp. Always inclose an envelope stamped and addressed to your address. This office has no control over persons advertising, so far as stamp for reply is concerned.

E.—Whatever the note says which is described in the deed of trust governs. If it states no action is to be taken before or after maturity no interest could be collected. The deed of trust would not be invalid on that account.

T. H.—We do not think there is a possibility of your recovering the property, as the statute of limitations may have acted as a bar. The only way to make sure is to get an abstract of the property and submit it to an attorney.

AUBURN HAIR.—If weary of blue and black, wear gray; if weary of checks, might also wear white. If skin is fair and clear, the right shade of brown would be suitable. (If possible, references may be given, advertising might pay you.)

SMITH.—Single man's entire salary may be garnished, no matter what it may be; 10 per cent of married man's. One garnishment on one salary; cost falls on debtor if debt is proven. Debt made in one state may be collected in another.

L.—Frostbite on the hands and feet has been treated successfully by Boray for years with applications of 70 per cent alcohol. With this he saturates gauze 3 layers in thickness. This is covered with a rubber sheet, and then with a bandage.

R. M.—As you only signed the chattel mortgage, there is no one else they could look to for payment of the note. Being careful to affirm the purchase of the piano. We do not expect anything will come of the case, but one can never tell what action the other side may take.

IGNORANT.—Wild ducks are protected by the game law (Sec. 3460), which says: "No part of the plumage, skin or body of any bird protected by this section shall be sold or offered for sale or for sale, irrespective of whether said bird was taken or killed within or without the State."

G. G.—A purchaser being unaware of restrictions contained in prior deeds, could not sue for the same on that account and must live up to the deed. Property owners could prevent you for any violation and prevent your putting up a store building; the permission from all must be obtained, not a majority.

Z. L.—The insurance made payable to the "wife" of insured does not mean the divorcee, but the wife of the insured. If the wife is dead, the insurance would be payable to the estate of the insured. If the wife is living, the insurance would be payable to her.

J. K. K.—When writing to the paper about a wrong such as you say you witnessed, why not give your name, policeman's number, and name of victim, which you could have and fail to carry conviction and can be certain. Your letter, without these, complies nothing. Your best course would have been to take all the facts up with Police Captain Young.

CONSTANT.—Upon selling the deed of trust (you being named payee in note), providing you indorsed the note "without recourse," you are released from any liability thereunder; but if you signed merely your name, you are liable for the debt, and without your signature, or others designating the extent of your liability, the holder can sue you thereon, or resort to foreclosure under the mortgage; and if he forecloses, and you bring less than amount of indebtedness, holder has recourse on you for deficiency. The trustee has no power under the deed to sue you for deficiency, and he has actually paid them right.

WORRIED.—As you did not specify to which account the payments were to be made, the bank would doubt credited to the last purchase, and after the same was paid in full all future payments were made on the mortgage. From receipt you hold you should be able to know whether the payments were credited to the mortgage or not.

IF payment of mortgage is not taken, you state nothing about suing a mortgagee, as you are not a creditor, and probably it is that you wish they threatened, and then threatened them, nothing more.

The Daily Short Story for Post-Dispatch Readers

CHIKITA, the little burro belonging to the American doctor, had wandered away from the spot where the doctor had left her. He had sprung from her back with a force that set all her silver bells a-jingle, as he hastened into the garden, where a crowd of women sobbed and clung about the dead body of Magdalena, the lover's daughter, who had been strangled by the village girl's love. Telephone Acquaintance.
S. E. writes: "Have talked several times over the phone with a young lady whom I should like to meet, but we have no mutual friend to introduce us. As I have no desire to keep company with anyone, but merely have in view an occasional pleasant evening to relieve the lonesomeness of a stranger, would it not be proper for me to ask to call at her home, even without an introduction?"
If you cannot find a mutual friend to introduce you and the young lady invites you to call, there would be no serious impropriety in going if her mother does not object.
Who Speaks First.
M. back at a boy if he winks at you first, and, which is proper, for a girl or boy to speak first?
It is not proper for either to wink; indeed, it is exceedingly vulgar. Acquaintances should never begin without proper introduction. Flirtations are dangerous and degrading.
A Neglected Wife.
C. writes: "My husband goes out every Sunday afternoon. He never takes me anywhere, and he knows I am lonesome. Do you think he treats me right? He prisms himself up to kill and does not dress me."
Perhaps if you would do your best to look pretty and would amiably ask him to take you, he would be glad to do so. He is very selfish, but you must do your best to make him proud of you.

HOW NATURE MAKES NEW COMPLEXIONS

(From The Family Physician.)
It is well known that the human skin is constantly undergoing a tearing-down and building-up process. With advancing years, or waning vitality this tissue-change lags; the lifeless, soiled surface skin stays on so long that its owner gets a "poor complexion."
Common sense tells us this dead skin cannot be enlivened by any cosmetic. The natural thing to do is to remove it. It has been found that ordinary mercurized wax completely absorbs the devitalized skin, in minute particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience. This wax, which a druggist can supply, is put on at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning. If you'd have a brilliantly beautiful complexion, just try this simple method.—ADV.

FRECKLES

New Drug That Quickly Removes These Homely Spots.
There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as a new drug, othine—double strength, has been discovered that is a positive cure for these homely spots. Simply get one ounce of othine—double strength, from Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and apply a little of it at night, and in the morning you will see that even the worst have begun to disappear, while the light freckles have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful, clear complexion.
Be sure to ask for the double-strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.—ADV.

EARNINGS OF THE HOME

Even your home has its earning power. There are spare rooms which would net you a neat sum of money weekly or monthly. Persons glad to rent rooms in private families are watching the Post-Dispatch Want Ad pages for the kind of places that appeal to their fancy. Are you going to bring yourself into the new and modern way of reaching these home seekers? It is the popular way in St. Louis. Last year the Post-Dispatch printed 146,883 Room and Board Wants, as compared with 82,284 in all the other St. Louis newspapers.

The Jarr Family (Mr. Jarr's conduct has driven the wife of his bosom from home)

Written for the Post-Dispatch By ROY L. MCCARDLE.

"W" E will arrive at 5 p. m. Meet us," read Mr. Jarr's telegram; but when the train rolled into the depot there was no waiting wife for Mr. Jarr.
He hastened home, to be greeted by the darkened flat in which he and Gertrude, the maid, lived. He unlocked the door and found the trunk packed and in the hallway of the flat.
"I was to give you the keys, Mr. Jarr," said Gertrude, coldly. "and you won't mind if I wait in the hall till the expressman comes for my trunk. I'm a respectable girl."
There was a faint, answering cry of fear, and half a dozen stone slugs were hurled at Gertrude, the maid, who fled in terror. Mr. Jarr, the glazier, and Mr. Rafferty, the builder, turned their backs upon him and walked out without a word. Mr. Bepier, the butcher, coming in at the side door about this time, halted at sight of the return of Mr. Jarr, but he did not stop. "My bill is $14.00, and if I don't get the money by tomorrow I sue you!" "What's the matter, Gus?" asked Mr. Jarr. "Is everybody crazy?"
Mrs. Gus, appearing at the back room door, as though she had been listening, said: "I've been waiting for you, Mr. Jarr, and your mother on the telephone, only to be snuffed off. Insulted and warned not to come near her abode by that grim old lady."

Sillygraphs

Done for the Post-Dispatch By R. LINTHICUM.

NCE there was a poet who owed $10.
"Oh, that I could pay what I owe!" he said.
His friend Wright asked: "Why don't you write something?"
"I will," he replied, and he wrote this:

ODE TO O-H-I-O.
O O-h-i-o, x-ctingly,
Of thee I sing in x-stasy!
Don't keep me in x-pectancy
Or I will sing of Ten-nessee.

"This way to the exit," said the editor.
"Try again," said Wright, "and whatever you write write it right."
"Right-o," said the poet, and he wrote this:

SILLYVERSE.
The air was full of atmosphere,
The woods were full of trees,
The cheerful man was full of cheer,
His dog was full of fleas.

The man was also full of dope,
His shoes were full of feet,
The dog was also full of hope,
He'd meet a piece of meat.

The wind did blow across the ice
And wind across the sea
And blew as far as you could see
Across the deep blue sea.

The bells went out and tolled the bell,
But told no other thing,
Though lovely Nell, who heard the knell,
Preferred a wedding ring.

"Does that annex the X?" he asked,
And the editor gave him an X to leave town.

Milady's Toilet Table

By Mme. D'MILLE

To keep the skin soft and lovely, gently massage the face, neck and arms daily with Milady's Skin Cream. It is an original package of mayonaisse in a tube, which is used by squeezing the cream out of the tube. It is better than powder, for it gives a more natural appearance and will not rub off, although it makes the complexion smooth, white and satiny.
To cleanse and refresh the scalp and hair, use a dry shampoo powder made by mixing a pinch of talcum powder with a little water. Sprinkle on the hair and brush out thoroughly. The much water makes the hair harsh, dry and brittle. Thoroughly cleanse the scalp with hair and perfume thick and luxuriant hair.
To remove any skin blemishes, use a facial cream. It is a most effective remedy for all skin blemishes, and it is used by applying it to the face and neck with a finger. It is better than powder, for it gives a more natural appearance and will not rub off, although it makes the complexion smooth, white and satiny.

By RIPLEY D. SAUNDERS.

N the Southern and Middle West presentation of "Machete" to a crowded house at the Shubert on Tuesday evening, there was seen a very fine rivalry between the two stars and the performance of the comic work which grew in power until it attained a truly terrible majesty.

"The Servant in the House," by GARRICK—William Courtenay in "Ready Money," a comedy of counterfeit high finance with a genuine "last night" appeal. Cleverly played by star and supporting company.

Next week, OLYMPIC—Christie MacDonald in "The Spring Maid," Second and last act work of best of the season. A very fine and a very useful comic opera excellently presented.

Next week, Blanche Bates in "Noah's Wife."

AMERICAN—Hanlon's "Fanny."

The Macbeth of Mr. Sothern's playing does not fill life eye nor realize in any degree the rugged picture of the bloody Scot whose vast crimes of ambition so dreadfully reacted for his own undoing. It is, indeed, a grievous disappointment in the picture, for so little of promise does it contain for the full picturing of one of the biggest and most sincerely tragic portents in the history of the world.

Next week, The Pacemakers. GAVEY—"The Queen of Bohemia," Burroughs and Vandeville.

Next week, The Golden Crock.

and, once hearing the pitch of the part thereafter becomes entirely familiar, as the upbeats lead into a black nocturne of horror so true in its dramatic shadings that one may not easily forget the full significance of the composition.

This shrewd Sothern shaping of the hapless Cawdor receives its first noticeable stroke in the fearful instant following the murder.

ing the midnight murder of a soulless man. The Macbeth played by Sothern lives in one's thought as a haunted creature inexorably doomed. I have never seen this play so effectively, so indelibly set across the footlights.

It moves the soul with a sort of hopeless pity for Macbeth. It imparts a curious poignancy to the final crashing of the castle walls.

It is a pity that the play is so short. It is a pity that the play is so short. It is a pity that the play is so short.

his colossal sin and scorpion-whipped into a Berserker-like madness. And then, with the tale of his life thus told to its appointed end, one emerges from the grip of its evil fascination with a firm conviction that Sothern has lived very closely to the truth of the character from the first to the last moment of the play's progress.

The player of Macbeth needs must Reaching its culmination in the blood-chilling truth of the sleep-walking scene, Marlowe's achievement throughout is of the most certain and unerring fidelity. Her Lady Macbeth is at one and the same time an inhuman and yet an intensely human creature.

Of iron hardness of soul when suddenly tempted by ambition and restless for opportunity, she is nevertheless capable of touching womanliness in her less

It seemed to me Tuesday night that I had never heard a more eloquent inarticulate utterance than was the shuddering cry of Lady Macbeth, her sleepless arms across her husband's face, her once dauntless head now bowed in submission to his bidding.

EXPORTS ARE GAINING

Shipments for Month of February
Break All Records for That Period.By Leased Wire From the New York
Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.NEW YORK, March 20.—The Evening Post, in its financial review today, says:"There was a good deal of interest in the market chiefly centered on the copper situation, which was beginning to go back to work in anticipation of the compromise act of parliament.""This was offset by the sudden declaration of the strike leaders that they would accept of Parliament on minimum wage, except that which they themselves have named.""But we in this country are familiar with such eleventh-hour irreconcilables, and we are also aware that the market is strong, and that when a strike, which the laborers and the entire community dislike,
but which is maintained as a measure in union politics, once begins to break up the situation work continues, whatever the resisting forces.""The London Stock Exchange hardly reflected the development of the day; its market was heavy—perhaps through profit-taking, perhaps through misinterpretation of the move itself.""Our own stock market moved up again, stocks of the road showing special strength, but a number of other shares rising a point or more.""To just what extent this was recognition of the news position for the English coal dispute—which has undoubtedly direct bearing on our own is a matter for conjecture."

"Money in Demand."

"The fact that the April settlement is now only ten days off, made many renew their bid for short-term loans in this market. Some large advances were made, and while serious rates were named as having been paid for one and two months' loans, large 30-day loans to Berlin and other foreign banks will net the lenders better than 5% per cent.""These loans were for the express purpose of carrying the borrowers over the quarterly settlement period, and since the price paid was virtually a double bid here, it was natural for the banks to make considerable advances.""The banks also were very ready to remittance to interior points, and it was evident that the currency was abundant in the West and Southwest, were causing down their balances at New York.""This bank here did not object to view of the price of cotton and money, although it was recognized that the demand for money here was gradually increasing, and the banks were bank supplies, which is less than half that shown a year ago, was largely concentrated in the vaults of one or two institutions.""Of home news, there was, first,
the full foreign trade report for February, which showed a very large increase for the extra day this year, the largest exports ever recorded in the month, and an increase in the total, showing the remarkably high ascertained figure of 16,200,000 pounds, an advance over the previous maximum estimate of 16,000,000.""The figure was greeted by a moderate rise in the price of cotton, reflecting the fact that last week's figures showed exports from the crop to date nearly 2,000,000 bales above the highest record for any corresponding period, while American spinning-takings have also during the past few weeks, surpassed all precedent.""A rise in the price of copper to the 15-cent level, which it has not touched since the autumn of 1910, attracted attention, but experience has taught the markets to distrust these spectacular moves in copper.""The steel corporation's complete annual report passed pretty much unnoticed; it showed a little that was not known before. Net earnings for 1911 were more than 25 per cent under 1910, and but for the abandonment of several large deductions usually made for improvement and reserve, the common stock dividend would not have been earned."

STRANGE DEATH OF WOMAN HERMIT TO BE INVESTIGATED

The death of Miss Mary Duff, a hermit, who was found lying face down in a field near Arsenal street, and the Watson road, Sunday morning, is further to be investigated by the coroner. Mounted policemen have heard stories from persons living in the neighborhood that lead them to believe Miss Duff may have been murdered by robbers.

Miss Duff, who was 60 years old and an eccentric woman, lived in a hut she had built herself with sticks, stones and carpets, about 15 feet from where she was found dead. The field in which she lived is owned by the Missouri Botanical Garden Association, and although she had been there three years and was looked upon as a squatter, no determined effort was made to eject her.

At 8:30 a. m., Sunday, John Janssen of 3138 Watson road, passing through the field, found Miss Duff's body. She was fully clothed, with the exception of shoes, and Janssen observed that her garters had been cut and her stockings pulled down.

In the hut the bodies of 15 dead chickens, a dead cat and dead dog were found wrapped in bundles. The condition of the place indicated that it had been ransacked and searched. Various articles were scattered about and the furniture had been disturbed.

About ten years ago Miss Duff won a verdict of $500 from Nick Carr, then superintendent of the workhouse. She sued him for false imprisonment, alleging he had detained her at the workhouse after she had served a sentence for squatting.

SURGEONS WATCH WOMAN'S HEART AND LUNGS WORK

Operation for Cancer Exposes Vital Organs of Patient Under an Anesthetic.

NEW APPARATUS IS USED

Contrivance Provides Artificial Respiration While Medical Men Use the Knife.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Watching an exposed human heart beat and the lungs perform their functions of maintaining life, a group of surgeons bent over the body of a woman in the amphitheater of the Bellevue Hospital and observed events for 30 minutes, while the combined efforts of science and nature won a triumph over death.

Nature was assisted by a humanly devised contrivance which was tried for the first time in this city. It is known as the Ellsberg apparatus. It forces air into the lungs and withdraws it, thus maintaining an artificial respiration in a patient incapacitated from breathing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Engelman, 57 years old, was the medium for the experiment. She was admitted to the hospital on March 14, suffering from recurrent cancer. Because of an operation performed 9 years ago, the surgeons were reluctant to repeat the work. Dr. Harrison Betts consulted with Visiting Surgeon Rogers and it was agreed that an immediate operation was the only means of saving the woman's life.

Mrs. Engelman was told of the crisis confronting her and eagerly consented to an operation. Heart and Lung in Sight.

It was necessary to make an incision which exposed the heart and left lung. As much of four ribs as covered the heart and lung were removed, leaving the vital organs absolutely bare to the gaze of the surgeons. Because of the removal of the support furnished by the ribs the lung would have collapsed without artificial assistance.

This was supplied by the Ellsberg apparatus, which is electrically equipped to supply air in the requisite quantity and at the requisite pressure. The air was supplied to the lung through a woven silk tube, which was placed in the patient's mouth and deflected until connection was made with the direct air passage to the lung. Extreme care had to be exercised in applying artificial respiration at a time when otherwise the exposed lung would collapse.

This was accomplished so successfully that the lung and the heart maintained their functions as if fairly normal conditions maintained. The diseased tissues were exposed at the same time, so as to enable the surgeons to remove them. While this was being accomplished those not actually engaged in the operation had ample opportunity to watch a human heart at work.

Patient in Recovering.
In closing the incision a supplementary phase of the work consisted in applying tissue transferred in part from the surfaces adjoining the incision, so that the aperture was closed when the surgeons had finished.

Mrs. Engelman came out of the influence of the anesthetic and her condition was such that the surgeons felt confident this morning of her complete recovery.

CHARGES HUSBAND PUT INK ON SPRING BONNET

Mrs. Mary J. Silva Also Testifies in Her Divorce Suit That He Threatened Her.

Mary Josephine Silva, testifying in her divorce suit against Francis P. Silva, in Judge Shields' court, said her husband spoiled her new spring bonnet by putting ink on it one night when he was drinking. On the same night, she said, he threatened her with a razor and frightened the whole household. She said she, her daughter and a woman boarder escaped by jumping out of a window and that she then had her husband arrested.

The Silvas were married May 18, 1897, and separated Sept. 1, 1911. Mrs. Silva lives at 3834 Kennerly avenue. She conducted a millinery store at 2823 North Vandeventer avenue and later was in the restaurant business. Silva's support of her was periodical, she said.

AFFINITY WIFE'S WITNESS

Woman Gets Divorce After "Other Woman" Testifies.

A divorce was granted by Judge Shields Tuesday to Mrs. Genevieve Harris from Gordon Harris after Miss Hilda Grau, who was called as a witness for the wife, testified Harris had been courted by her. Miss Grau said she became acquainted with Harris more than a year ago and that she has associated with him ever since.

She did not know until last November he had a wife, she said. Then she was informed by the wife herself, Mrs. Harris and Miss Grau are employed in the same department store. The wife was allowed $20 a month alimony.
